The School of Business enforces all prerequisites.

The course description is: The legal system and legal ordering as they affect those engaged in business activities. Emphasis on the law of tort, law of contract, agency and bailment, business associations (partnerships/proprietorships/corporations) and real estate.

COURSE PHILOSOPHY

The purpose of the course Business Law in Canada consists in understanding the legal environment which has an impact on Canadian businesses.

The course is divided in three parts. Part 1 deals with an overview of the Canadian legal environment. Part 2 deals with the legal forms of business and organisation. Part 3 part deals with the law of torts and the law of contracts. Part 4 looks at specific topics of law such as bailment, Sale of Goods, Interests in Land.

Throughout the course, students are encouraged to focus on their personal or work experiences as they relate to the course material. All the course material assigned and learnt will be cumulative and students will be tested comprehensively on their understanding of the material at the end of the course.

Students are prohibited from using any electronic devices to tape record classes, lectures or discussions and to use them during examination.

If you must miss the mid-term exam due to verifiable illness, you may apply to shift the weight of the mid-term to the final exam by submitting a medical certificate or other verifiable documentation to me—the instructor—no later than five (5) calendar days after the midterm date.

FND (Failure, no deferral): You must achieve at least 50% in the midterm and the term paper (combined) to pass this course. That is in these two components combined you must earn at least 30%.

FND grade will be given in case of missed final exam or project.

Students must retain a hard copy of all work that is submitted. Final grades are subject to Dean’s approval.

In accordance with the Carleton University Undergraduate Calendar (p 34), the letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

- A+ = 90-100
- B+ = 77-79
- C+ = 67-69
- D+ = 57-59

University rules regarding registration, withdrawal, appealing marks, and most anything else you might need to know can be found on the university’s website, here: http://calendar.carleton.ca/undergrad/regulations/academicregulationsoftheuniversity/

REQUESTS FOR ACADEMIC ACCOMODATIONS

For Students with Disabilities:

The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. The deadlines for contacting the Paul Menton Centre regarding accommodation for final exams for the August 2015 exam period is July 24, 2015.

GROUP WORK IN BUSI COURSES

We encourage group assignments in the school for several reasons. They provide you with opportunities to develop and enhance interpersonal, communication, leadership, follower-ship and other group skills. Group assignments are also good for learning integrative skills for putting together a complex task. Your professor may assign one or more group tasks/assignments/projects in this course. If you have a group assignment you may find the resources at http://sprott.carleton.ca/academic_programs/groupwork useful.

Before embarking on a specific problem as a group, it is your responsibility to ensure that the problem is meant to be a group assignment and not an individual one.

FOR RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE

Students requesting academic accommodation on the basis of religious observance should make a formal, written request to their instructors for alternate dates and/or means of satisfying academic requirements. Such requests should be made during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist, but no later than two weeks before the compulsory academic event. Accommodation is to be worked out directly and on an individual basis between the student and the instructor(s) involved. Instructors will make accommodations in a way that avoids academic disadvantage to the student.

Students or instructors who have questions or want to confirm accommodation eligibility of a religious event or practice may refer to the Equity Services website for a list of holy days and Carleton’s Academic Accommodation policies, or may contact an Equity Services Advisor in the Equity Services Department for assistance.

FOR PREGNANCY

Pregnant students requiring academic accommodations are encouraged to contact an Equity Advisor in Equity Services to complete a letter of accommodation. The student must then make an appointment to discuss her needs with the instructor at least two weeks prior to the first academic event in which it is anticipated the accommodation will be required.

PLAGIARISM

The University's Senate defines plagiarism in the regulations on instructional offences as “to use and pass off as one’s own idea or product work of another without expressly giving credit to another.” Borrowing someone else’s answers, unauthorized possession of tests or answers to tests, or possession of material designed to help answer exam questions, are also subject to university policy regarding instructional offences.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Violations of academic integrity are a serious academic offence. Violations of academic integrity – presenting another’s ideas, arguments, words or images as your own, using unauthorized material, misrepresentation, fabricating or misrepresenting research data, unauthorized cooperation or collaboration or completing work for another student – weaken the quality of the degree and will not be tolerated. Penalties may include expulsion; suspension from all studies at Carleton; suspension from full-time studies; a refusal of permission to continue or to register in a specific degree program; academic probation; and a grade of Failure in the course, amongst others. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy which is available, along with resources for compliance at: http://www2.carleton.ca/sasc/advisingcentre/academic-integrity/.
