Course calendar entry from 2015/2016 graduate calendar:
Operating organizations across national and cultural boundaries adds complexity to the tasks that confront managers and requires specific skills. Topics discussed include motivation, leadership, communication and negotiation in a cross-cultural context as well as the pervasive effects of culture on interactions within and across firms.

Course Description:
In an increasingly competitive global business environment, managers must be prepared to manage across national and cultural boundaries. Managers are required to work effectively with people and organizations from various cultural backgrounds, and design and implement procedures, processes and programs that are accepted across the multiple cultural groups within an organization. Among others, managers need to communicate, motivate, lead, and negotiate across cultures.

The problems facing international managers do not present themselves readily labeled for solution – they are messy, indeterminate situations of uncertainty, instability, uniqueness and value conflict. This course will prepare students to deal with such ambiguous and dynamic intercultural and multicultural situations by focusing on the role of managers in shaping intercultural interactions within and across organizations.

Learning Objectives:
At the end of this course participants should:
1. Recognize the unique challenges of cross-cultural management and develop a personal development plan to prepare for these challenges.
2. Understand their role in shaping intercultural interactions and identify behavioural mechanisms to facilitate understanding.
3. Understand the role of culture on management practice and develop the skills to create and manage culture.
4. Articulate managerial perspectives that are supportive of corporate goals and are acceptable to multiple cultural groups within the organization.
Course Prerequisites: IBUS 5701

Readings and cases:
Readings will be made available through the library e-reserve system and culearn. Cases are available through the Harvard Business Press (see class link on culearn).

Drop Course Policy:
You may drop this course up until the END of the second week of classes. Students that drop a class in the third week will receive a WDN but will automatically have the grade changed to ABS. A grade of ABS is considered a failing grade. Students with relevant medical issues and supporting documentation may petition the School to have the ABS grade changed back to WDN.

Preparation and participation:
Class attendance, preparation and participation are an important part of your grade. This includes arriving on time for all classes, having read all assigned materials, and being fully prepared to participate in class activities and discussions. Students are expected to do extensive preparation (typically not less than two hours) as well as being alert and willing to participate. Preparation and participation grades will range from 0 to 15 points, depending upon performance, with highest scores reserved for exemplary behavior, not simple attendance. Students are encouraged to submit their case preparation notes in CUlearn by 8am of the day the case will be discussed. See case preparation questions on culearn.

Individual reflections:
The basic premise guiding the development of this course is that intercultural competence is only developed through self-reflection on experience and information and that students must take responsibility for their own learning. Throughout the course students will be required to engage and reflect on intercultural experiences. More details will be provided in class and on culearn.

Final exam date: October 20

The final exam is open book, take home, and will be based on a case to be provided a day prior to the exam.
Group Project:
As part of the experience of this course, students will work on teams towards a class presentation on a cross-cultural topic. Details will be provided in class and on culearn.

Missed assignments and deferred examination:
Weekly assignments are an important component of the learning. It is important that assignments are submitted on time. Deferred assignments may be granted when the absence is supported by a medical certificate and or appropriate document/s to support the reason for the deferral. Deferred assignments are not granted for students who have made travel arrangements that conflict with class schedule.

Deferred Final Examination:
Students unable to write a final examination because of illness or other circumstances beyond their control must contact the instructor and the MBA office in writing to request a deferred exam. Permission may be granted when the absence is supported by a medical certificate and or appropriate document/s to support the reason for the deferral. Deferred exams are not granted for students who have made travel arrangements that conflict with examination schedule.

Policy on Mobile Devices

The use of mobile devices IS NOT PERMITTED in this class. It is disruptive to the instructor and class members. If you carry such a device to class, please make sure it is turned off. If an emergency situation requires you to keep it turned on, please discuss this with your instructor prior to class.

Group Work

The Sprott School of Business encourages group assignments in the school for several reasons. They provide you with opportunities to develop and enhance interpersonal, communication, leadership, followership and other group skills. Group assignments are also good for learning integrative skills for putting together a complex task. Your instructor may assign one or more group tasks/assignments/projects in this course.

Before embarking on a specific problem as a group, it is your responsibility to ensure that the problem is meant to be a group assignment and not an individual one.

Person with Disabilities

Students with disabilities requiring academic accommodations in this course are encouraged to contact a co-ordinator at the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities to complete the necessary letters of accommodation. After registering with the PMC, make an appointment to meet and discuss your needs with me at least two weeks prior to the first in-class test or ITV midterm exam. This is necessary in order to ensure sufficient time to make the necessary arrangements. Please refer to http://www.carleton.ca/pmc/ for all PMC information.

Religious Observance

Students requesting academic accommodation on the basis of religious observance should make a formal, written request to their instructors for alternate dates and/or means of satisfying academic requirements. Such requests should be made during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist, but no later than two weeks before the compulsory academic event. Accommodation is to be worked out directly and on an individual basis between the student and the instructor(s) involved. Instructors will make accommodations in a way that avoids academic disadvantage to the student.

Students or instructors who have questions or want to confirm accommodation eligibility of a religious event or practice may refer to the Equity Services website for a list of holy days and Carleton’s Academic Accommodation policies, or may contact an Equity Services Advisor in the Equity Services Department for assistance.

Pregnancy

Pregnant students requiring academic accommodations are encouraged to contact an Equity Advisor in Equity Services to complete a letter of accommodation. The student must then make an appointment to discuss her needs with the instructor at least two weeks prior to the first academic event in which it is anticipated the accommodation will be required.
Academic Integrity

Violations of academic integrity are a serious academic offence. Violations of academic integrity – presenting another’s ideas, arguments, words or images as your own, using unauthorized material, misrepresentation, fabricating or misrepresenting research data, unauthorized co-operation or collaboration or completing work for another student – weaken the quality of the degree and will not be tolerated. Penalties may include expulsion; suspension from all studies at Carleton; suspension from full-time studies; a refusal of permission to continue or to register in a specific degree program; academic probation; and a grade of Failure in the course, amongst others. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy which is available, along with resources for compliance at http://www2.carleton.ca/sasc/advisingcentre/academic-integrity/.
