

RESEARCH SEMINAR

Sabbatical Returns

Thursday February 17th, 2022

12:00-1:00pm

Zoom: <https://carleton-ca.zoom.us/j/93071647136>

Join us to learn about what your colleagues worked on during their sabbaticals!

Speakers:

Dr. François Brouard, DBA, FCPA, FCA, is a Full professor (Accounting and Taxation) at the Sprott School of Business, Carleton University and Founding director of the Sprott Centre for Social Enterprises / Centre Sprott pour les entreprises sociales (SCSE/CSES), co-founder of Groupe de recherche sur l'industrie de l'humour (GRIH) and a member of the Professional Accounting Research Group (PARG).

At the upcoming research seminar, Dr. Brouard will provide an overview of a wide range of activities under diverse themes during the sabbatical year (COVID-19 pandemic period).

Dr. Linda Schweitzer is Professor of Management at the Sprott School of Business. Dr. Schweitzer's overarching research program examines diversity in the workforce including accessibility, the gender gap, generations in the workforce, and the representation of women in STEM. Her book, Generational Career Shifts: How Matures, Boomers, Gen Xers, and Millennials View Work explores how generations differ in career expectations, values, and attitudes in the workplace.

Dr. Schweitzer is currently working under a SSHRC grant to explore youth and contemporary careers.
