

Mental Health and the Accounting Profession

Thursday, November 28th, 2019

light breakfast available beginning at 8:30am

Woodside Hall
Carleton Dominion-Chalmers Centre 355 Cooper Street, Ottawa, ON (corner of O'Connor and Cooper Street)

speaker programming 9:00am - noon

Join the Professional Accounting Research Group (PARG) of the Sprott School of Business, Carleton University for a morning of information and conversation on

Accountants' Mental Health Strategies for Ourselves and Our Colleagues Best Practices for Organizations

Denis Trottier, FCPA, FCA
Chief Mental Health Officer, KPMG

Caroline Workman
Certified Return to Work Coordinator, Organizational Health Consultant, Great-West Life

Tim Simboli, PhD
Executive Director, CMHA Ottawa

*Limited Paid Parking is available in the Centre's lot (entrance off Lisgar Street)
Accessible by OC Transpo Buses
6, 7, and 11
Approximately 6 blocks (7 minute walk) from the Parliament LRT Station*

There is no charge to attend, however advance registration is required

Please Register HERE

We ask you to please circulate this invitation among your accounting colleagues

Questions? Contact Professor Merridee Bujaki, FCPA, FCA
Merridee.Bujaki@Carleton.ca

