Course Calendar description from the 2018/2019 University calendar:

Introduction to the development and use of accounting information within a business organization for effective management including: planning, directing, motivating, and controlling activities and behaviours.

Course Description:

This course examines how accounting information is used within organizations to plan, monitor and control. Managers in all functional areas, whether they like it or not, will have to deal with the management accounting system of the organization they work for. Better the devil that you know than the devil you don't know. The purpose of this course is therefore to ensure you have a basic understanding of how such systems operate, the language it uses, and its limitations. Successful completion of this course will also give you a solid foundation for additional study and careers in business.

Required Course Materials:

Textbook & Course Pack: An Introduction to Management Accounting, 2nd Edition, Maurice, 2019 & Course Pack BUSI 1005 Winter 2019
Available at Haven Books – 43 Seneca St (corner of Sunnyside and Seneca)

Financial Calculator:

One of the following calculators is needed for chapter 12 in this course. If you do not wish to purchase a financial calculator, then you will be able to do the calculations using formulas. If you are planning on taking future business courses, you should consider purchasing one of the following financial calculators:

- Texas Instruments BAII- Plus (or Pro model)
- Hewlett-Packard 10BII Business Calculator or HP 12
- Staples Financial Calculator

CULearn

This course uses CULearn extensively (theory videos, additional problem sets, self- assessment quizzes, announcements, etc). You should be on cuLearn OFTEN. To access your courses on CULearn go to <http://carleton.ca/culearn>. For help and support, go to <http://carleton.ca/culearn/students>. Any unresolved questions can be directed to Information Technology Services (ITS) by phone at 613-520-3700 or via email at its.service.desk@carleton.ca. You can also visit them on the 4th floor of the library.

Teaching Method - The Flipped Classroom

Class time will be spent on topic review and summary, but mostly in-class problems from your course pack. It is very important that you come to class with the expectation that you will be doing work. Class time is not meant to be passive. Class time will be active learning where you will be expected to be working through problems and actively working and learning. If you are struggling with the work please put your hand up to ask questions. Alternatively, if you are getting through the in class problems well, then please try and help your classmates who may need help.

You are expected to watch the videos before each class so that you are aware of the material and ready to work through problems in class. As you watch the videos you should be making notes and bringing these notes to class with you. If you come across questions from the videos please ask these questions in class or post them in cuLearn, they will be answered promptly. The PowerPoint slides that you have in your course pack accompany the video lectures.

You are also expected to read the assigned readings from the textbook and course pack and work through the assigned homework practice problems.

Grading Scheme:

Instructor specific (to be discussed in class)	10%
Quizzes	10%
Midterm (Saturday March 2nd, 9:00a.m.-11:00a.m.)	30%
Final examination (3 hours)	50%
	100%

*Final grades are subject to the Dean's approval

Quizzes:

The quizzes will be due on the following dates at midnight as follows:

Quiz	Due Date
Chapter 2 quiz	Sun Jan 13
Chapter 3 quiz	Sun Jan 20
Chapter 4 quiz	Sun Jan 27
Chapter 5 quiz	Sun Feb 3
Chapter 6 quiz	Sun Feb 10
Chapter 7A* quiz	Sun Feb 24
Chapter 7B* quiz	Sun Mar 3
Chapter 8 quiz	Sun Mar 10
Chapter 9 quiz	Sun Mar 17
Chapter 10 quiz	Sun Mar 24
Chapter 11 quiz	Sun Mar 31
Chapter 12 quiz	Sun April 7

*7A consists of Special Orders and Make vs. Buy

The quizzes consist of answering 5 multiple-choice questions and are to be submitted through cuLearn.

- If you answer 1 question out of 5 correctly, you get 25%
- If you answer 2 questions out of 5 correctly, you get 50%
- If you answer 3 questions out of 5 correctly, you get 75%
- If you answer 4 questions out of 5 correctly, you get 100%
- If you answer 5 questions out of 5 correctly, you get 100%

You will be allowed two attempts at each quiz. The best of the two attempt grades will count as your quiz grade. Your final quiz grade will consist of the best 11 out of 12 quizzes.

Mid-term and Final Exam:

The only valid excuse for missing the mid-term is for medical reasons (medical emergency) or death in the family and must be documented with a medical certificate. Any other reason (such as travel, etc...) cannot be considered and will be given a grade of 0. If proper medical documentation is provided, then you will need to discuss with your instructor the choice of making up the lost work or shifting the weight to the final exam.

The exams will be marked by the teaching assistants and the instructors together and follow a rigorous quality control process that reasonably assures that the grade awarded on exams is fair. However, no system is 100% error -free, so it is possible that you may wish to call into question a grade that has been awarded on a test. In this circumstance, please write a brief note describing the difficulty with the awarded grade and provide this note, together with the graded test, to the instructor or teaching assistant no later than seven calendar days following the date the tests were distributed back in class. Please be sure to include your name and student number on the note to enable us to properly identify it.

The mid-term will be held on Saturday March 2nd from 9:00a.m. to 11:00a.m. Locations will be announced in cuLearn and in class about a week before the mid-term. The mid-term will cover chapters 1 – 7I (the first 6 weeks of the term).

The final examination will be held in the regular examination period (April 12-27). The duration of the exam will be 3 hours. The final examination will cover the whole course. You need to obtain a minimum of 40% on the final exam to pass this course.

Classroom Expectations & Conduct:

Professional conduct is built upon the idea of mutual respect. Such conduct includes (but is not limited to):

1) Attendance & Punctuality

Doing well in the course is highly correlated to your attendance and participation. We will do our best to make the class of value to you, and in turn, we expect you to come prepared for each and every class. If circumstances prevent attendance, please remember that you are responsible for all materials discussed, handouts distributed, problems covered, and announcements made. Late arrivals are disruptive to instructors and the other students in the class, and so should be avoided. On a similar note, early departures should also be an exception.

2) Other Disruptions

This is a very broad category, and includes leaving and re-entering class (although we understand that there are times that this is a necessity). Side conversations are discouraged, however, talking to the class as a whole is encouraged. Texting, other cell phone use, internet surfing or completing other classwork while in class is a poor use of your time and will not be tolerated. Unfortunately, humans are not as good at multitasking as we would like to believe. Please turn your phone on silent (or off).

3) Being Prepared

Have access to your textbook and course pack while in class and engage in solving problems that are covered in class. You should be ready to discuss any assigned readings and to answer any assigned questions for each day's class. Please refer to the course schedule, and any prior in-class announcements to know what is expected from you at each class.

How to do well in this course:

WATCH THE VIDEOS, COME TO CLASS, AND PRACTICE, PRACTICE, PRACTICE...

To perform well in this course, you must spend time answering extra problems and checking the answers to test your understanding. To maximize your learning, you should make an honest attempt at the question before peeking at the solution. Simply reading a question and then turning to the solution right away is next to useless. You will find that there is likely to be a direct correlation between the number of problems you prepare, your attendance in class and your course grade.

You are provided with detailed solutions to all of the problems in the textbook. In addition, some of the problems are identified with a video icon. These problems are accompanied with a video that takes up the problem in detail.

Teaching Assistants and Support

Teaching assistants are available to support you throughout this course. They will answer any questions posted to the Discussion Forums in a timely manner. In addition, senior accounting TA's will be holding office hours. The office hour schedule will be posted to cuLearn.

Video Technical Issues

If you encounter technical issues watching the videos, usually the solution is to try to view them using a different browser. If this does not work, send an e-mail to capture@carleton.ca. Make sure you specify which course you are registered and which specific video is giving you trouble.

FINAL THOUGHTS

For many students, this course is a difficult one. Part of this difficulty stems from a challenging subject matter, but the biggest difficulty comes from failing to devote enough effort to working with the material. Like calculus and other courses where no two problems look alike, managerial accounting requires that you practice working with it—over and over and over.

These observations have a number of implications for you and us. First, you will have to spend many hours during, and after watching the videos/going to class working on the course. This course contains lots of new vocabulary and concepts, so don't be afraid to ask the TA's for clarification or examples. After watching the videos, you should review both your class notes and the suggested solutions to the assigned problems to improve your understanding. It is absolutely essential that you keep up with the assigned readings and end- of-chapter problems.

In exchange for your hard work, you can expect the same from us. For example, expect us to enthusiastically answer any and all of your questions. Expect us to provide timely feedback on how well you understanding the material.

In past years, many students struggled in this course mainly because they underestimated the time and commitment required to be successful.

Group work

The Sprott School of Business encourages group assignments in the school for several reasons. They provide you with opportunities to develop and enhance interpersonal, communication, leadership, follower-ship and other group skills. Group assignments are also good for learning integrative skills for putting together a complex task. Your professor may assign one or more group tasks/assignments/projects in this course. Before embarking on a specific problem as a group, it is your responsibility to ensure that the problem is meant to be a group assignment and not an individual one.

In accordance with the Carleton University Undergraduate Calendar (p 34), the letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

A+ = 90-100	B+ = 77-79	C+ = 67-69	D+ = 57-59
A = 85-89	B = 73-76	C = 63-66	D = 53-56

Requests for Academic Accommodation

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request, the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation

Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

Religious obligation

Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

If you have a documented disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation or contact your PMC coordinator to send your instructor your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term. You must also contact the PMC no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with your instructor as soon as possible to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. carleton.ca/pmc

Survivors of Sexual Violence

As a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and its survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton's Sexual Violence Policy. For more information about the services available at the university and to obtain information about sexual violence and/or support, visit: carleton.ca/sexual-violence-support

Accommodation for Student Activities

Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, that result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom experience. Reasonable accommodation must be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. <https://carleton.ca/senate/wp-content/uploads/Accommodation-for-Student-Activities-1.pdf>

For more information on academic accommodation, please contact the departmental administrator or visit: students.carleton.ca/course-outline

Academic Integrity

Violations of academic integrity are a serious academic offence. Violations of academic integrity – presenting another’s ideas, arguments, words or images as your own, using unauthorized material, misrepresentation, fabricating or misrepresenting research data, unauthorized co-operation or collaboration or completing work for another student – weaken the quality of the degree and will not be tolerated. Penalties may include; a grade of Failure on the submitted work and/or course; academic probation; a refusal of permission to continue or to register in a specific degree program; suspension from full-time studies; suspension from all studies at Carleton; expulsion from Carleton, amongst others. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy which is available, along with resources for compliance at: <https://carleton.ca/registrar/academic-integrity/>.

Sprott Student Services

The Sprott student services office, located in 710 Dunton Tower, offers academic advising, study skills advising, and overall academic success support. If you are having a difficult time with this course or others, or just need some guidance on how to successfully complete your Sprott degree, please drop in any weekday between 8:30am and 4:30pm. Our advisors are happy to discuss grades, course selection, tutoring, concentrations, and will ensure that you get connected with the resources you need to succeed! <http://sprott.carleton.ca/students/undergraduate/learning-support/>

Centre for Student Academic Support

The Centre for Student Academic Support (CSAS) is a centralized collection of learning support services designed to help students achieve their goals and improve their learning both inside and outside the classroom. CSAS offers academic assistance with course content, academic writing and skills development. Visit CSAS on the 4th floor of MacOdrum Library or online at: carleton.ca/csas.
