Course Description and Objectives

This is the first of two Intermediate Accounting courses, which cover the traditional financial accounting topics as well as recent developments within the accounting profession. This first course’s focus is mainly on the conceptual framework and the objectives of financial reporting, a comprehensive review of the accounting cycle including all financial statements, revenue recognition, and the asset side of the balance sheet.

The two main objectives of this course are:

- To develop an understanding of the objectives of accounting and the concepts, principles, policies and procedures underlying current professional practice in the preparation of financial reports
- To promote a full understanding of the nature of financial statements and the inherent limitations in their preparation and use.

This course will be based on International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) and Accounting Standards for Private Enterprises (ASPE).

Examinations and Grading

Assignments 15%
Mid-Term 35%
Final Exam – 3 hours 50%
100%

The mid-term will be held on Friday July 26 from 18:00 – 20:00. Locations will be announced in cuLearn about a week before the mid-term. The mid-term will cover chapters 13, 14, 15, 16, 17 and 19.
Graded mid-terms can be collected from the CUOL Student Centre, D299 Loeb. If you do not normally come to campus, the CUOL Student Centre staff will scan and email the graded mid-term to you. Please send a request for a scanned copy from your Carleton email account to cuol@carleton.ca and make sure to include your name, the course and your student number.

The final examination will be held in the regular examination period (Aug 19-25). The duration of the exam will be 3 hours. The final examination will cover the whole course. You need to obtain a minimum of 40% on the final exam to pass this course.

The only valid excuse for missing the mid-term is for medical reasons or death in the family and must be documented with a medical certificate. Any other reason (such as travel, etc...) cannot be considered. In such circumstances there will be no make-up mid-term. The grade weighting corresponding to the test that was missed will be added to the grade weighting of the final exam (i.e. the final exam will count for 85% of the grade).

The mid-term will be marked by the teaching assistants together with the professor and follow a rigorous quality control process that (hopefully) ensures that the grade awarded on exams is fair. However, no system is 100% error-free, so it is possible that you may wish to call into question a grade that has been awarded on a test or assignment. In this circumstance, please write a brief note describing the difficulty with the awarded grade and provide this note, together with the graded test or assignment, to me no later than seven calendar days following the return of the graded work. Please be sure to include your name and student number on the note to enable me to properly identify it.

The exams will test both the technical and conceptual aspects of the course. The final exam will be comprehensive in nature and will cover the whole course. Only non-programmable calculators (without alpha storage capabilities) will be permitted for use during examinations. Translation dictionaries are allowed as long as they are in print format and do not contain any handwritten notes. Electronic translation dictionaries are not allowed.

If you are planning on writing the mid-term and/or final exams out of town, you must make arrangements with the CUOL office as soon as possible. They need to receive your application at least two weeks before the mid-term.

The assignments will be due on the following dates at midnight as follows:

Your final assignment grade will consist of the best 5 out of 6 assignments.
The ‘Slides and Instructions’ Files

These documents located in CUlearn provide you with the road map to the course:
- the first page of the Chapter File provides you with the list of the videos you should be watching and the order in which you should be watching them,
- the remaining pages provide you with a copy of the powerpoint slides and in-class problems that are taken up in the videos

All you literally need to do is to print the chapter files out and follow along.

How to do well in this course:

WATCH ALL VIDEOS, AND PRACTICE, PRACTICE, PRACTICE…

To perform well in this course, you must spend time answering extra problems and checking the answers to test your understanding. To maximize your learning, you should make an honest attempt at the question before peeking at the solution. Simply reading a question and then turning to the solution right away is next to useless. You will find that there is likely to be a direct correlation between the number of problems you prepare, your attendance in class and your course grade.

Teaching Assistants and Support

Teaching assistants are available to support you throughout this course. They will answer any questions posted to the Discussion Forums in a timely manner. In addition, a senior accounting TA will be holding office hours as follows:

Mondays from 16:30 – 18:00
Tuesdays from 16:30 – 18:00
Thursdays from 10:00 – 11:30

Office hours will start the week of July 11 and end the week of August 15.

Location: Room 9010B Dunton Tower

FINAL THOUGHTS

Let me be blunt. This is not a course to register in if you are seeking easy credit. For many students, this course is a difficult one. Part of this difficulty stems from a challenging subject matter, but the biggest difficulty comes from failing to devote enough effort to working with the material. Like calculus and other courses where no two problems look alike, accounting requires that you practice working with it—over and over and over. You are unlikely to learn by merely watching someone else "do accounting." More often than not, you will find that when I do it, it looks easy. When you get home and you try to do it on your own, all of a sudden it’s not so easy.

These observations have a number of implications for you and I. First, you will have to spend many hours during, and after class working on the course. During class, you should ask questions whenever they arise and don't stop asking until you are satisfied that you understand our explanations. This class contains lots of new vocabulary and concepts, so don't be afraid to ask us for clarification or examples. After class, you should review both your class notes and the suggested solutions to the assigned problems to improve your understanding. It is absolutely essential that you keep up with the assigned reading and end-of-chapter problems.

In exchange for your hard work, you can expect the same from me. For example, expect me to come to class with an organized outline of the day's topics. Expect me to enthusiastically answer any and all of your questions, either in-person during class and office hours, or via cuLearn discussion group postings. Expect me to provide timely feedback on how well you are understanding the material.

Group work
The Sprott School of Business encourages group assignments in the school for several reasons. They provide you with opportunities to develop and enhance interpersonal, communication, leadership, follower-ship and other group skills. Group assignments are also good for learning integrative skills for putting together a complex task. Your professor may assign one or more group tasks/assignments/projects in this course. Before embarking on a specific problem as a group, it is your responsibility to ensure that the problem is meant to be a group assignment and not an individual one.

Academic Regulations, Accommodations, Etc.
University rules regarding registration, withdrawal, appealing marks, and most anything else you might need to know can be found on the university’s website, here:
http://calendar.carleton.ca/undergrad/regulations/academicregulationsoftheuniversity/

Requests for Academic Accommodations
For Students with Disabilities:
The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. The deadlines for contacting the Paul Menton Centre regarding accommodations for June exams is June 3rd 2016, and for August exams is July 24th.

For Religious Obligations:
Students requesting academic accommodation on the basis of religious obligation should make a formal, written request to their instructors for alternate dates and/or means of satisfying academic requirements. Such requests should be made during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist, but no later than two weeks before the compulsory event. Accommodation is to be worked out directly and on an individual basis between the student and the instructor(s) involved. Instructors will make accommodations in a way that avoids academic disadvantage to the student.
Students or instructors who have questions or want to confirm accommodation eligibility of a religious event or practice may refer to the Equity Services website for a list of holy days and Carleton's Academic Accommodation policies, or may contact an Equity Services Advisor in the Equity Services Department for assistance.

For Pregnancy:
Pregnant students requiring academic accommodations are encouraged to contact an Equity Advisor in Equity Services to complete a letter of accommodation. The student must then make an appointment to discuss her needs with the instructor at least two weeks prior to the first academic event in which it is anticipated the accommodation will be required.

Academic Integrity
Violations of academic integrity are a serious academic offence. Violations of academic integrity – presenting another’s ideas, arguments, words or images as your own, using unauthorized material, misrepresentation, fabricating or misrepresenting research data, unauthorized co-operation or collaboration or completing work for another student – weaken the quality of the degree and will not be tolerated. Penalties may include; a grade of Failure in the submitted work and/or course; academic probation; a refusal of permission to continue or to register in a specific degree program; suspension from full-time studies; suspension from all studies at Carleton; expulsion from Carleton, amongst others. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy which is available, along with resources for compliance at: http://www2.carleton.ca/sasc/advisingcentre/academic-integrity/.
