FALL 2021 TERM

Employability Passport Coordinator: Cynthia Cartwright

Virtual Office Hours: Monday – Friday (8:30am – 4:30pm)

Email: Employabilitypassport@cunet.carleton.ca

Modality: Online

Course Calendar description:

An intermediate course in the knowledge and tools required for a career in Business.

Includes: Experiential Learning Activity

Prerequisite(s): BUSI 1995.

Participation in employability events and initiatives throughout the year.

Course Description:

For second year of the Sprott Employability Passport (Business Career Preparation Requirement) students will engage and participate in four badges by successfully completing and submitting all requirements below to complete BUSI 2995:

- 1. Career Management: Attend the mandatory Cover Letter Workshop and create a tailored cover letter for a job you would be interested in. Further add to and complete your resume. Set up an appointment to have your finished resume and cover letter reviewed by BCMC.
- 2. Communications: Complete a LinkedIn profile or write an approach email to a potential employer.
- 3. Professionalism: Attend TWO events and submit a reflection for each event.
- 4. Teamwork*: Take part in TWO activities in school clubs, sports, orientation, etc. Submit a reflection for each activity OR 5. Good Business*: Take part in TWO volunteer activities and submit proof of participation. Please note that you can also choose to do 1 activity from Good Business and 1 activity from Teamwork to receive both badges.

Learning Objectives:

This course will focus on using experiential learning to develop career ready skills. You will participate in various activities outside the classroom to help you build on the skills you developed in year 1 of the passport. The goal is to also help with the following:

1. Professionalism: Understand the importance of networking by attending networking events to practice business etiquette skills.
2. Career Management: Learn to craft a tailored resume and cover letter when presented with job opportunities.
3. Communications: Showcase your professional brand by building a LinkedIn profile or learn how to write an effective approach email to a potential employer that you may not have been formally introduced to but are interested in working for.
4. Technology: Learn new technology skills that are used and/or relevant to the industry in which you would like to pursue a career.
5. Good Business: Understand the importance of community service and the value in giving back to the community.
6. Teamwork: Develop strong collaborative skills when working with peers, colleagues, faculty, and business professionals.

Reading(s)/Textbook(s)/Required Materials (incl. technical requirements, i.e., webcam):

There are no textbooks required for this course. Access to a computer or laptop with internet will be required for the course. A webcam or camera is not mandatory but useful for meetings or presentations.

Course Requirements & Methods of Evaluation (including due dates):

Students have both fall and winter terms to complete BUSI 2995. All assignments must be submitted at the end of the term, prior to the course deadline. Students are encouraged to promptly submit activities they have completed to help track your progress and always keep a hard copy of all your submitted assignments.

This is a non-credit course and will result in either a SAT (Satisfactory) or IP (In Progress) Grade. All students who have not completed the course by the end of each term MUST register themselves for the following term in order to be able to continue working on completing their badges for the course. (e.g. A student who registered for 2995 in the Fall did not complete by the end of the Fall term MUST register for the Winter Term in order to be able to continue working on the course requirements. If this student does not complete the course by the end of the Winter Term, they MUST register for and SUCCESSFULLY complete BUSI 2995 by the end of the summer term).

IMPORTANT NOTE: Successful completion of BUSI 2995 is required for registration in any course that requires third year standing.

DEADLINES:

The deadline for Registration for the 2021 Fall Term is Wednesday September 22, 2021.

Although the 2021 Fall term officially ends on Friday December 10th, 2021, the deadline to have all of your work completed and submitted for the Fall Term is end of the day (11:59 pm) on Friday November 26th, 2021. This will give you time to correct and resubmit your badges if they are declined.

Course Schedule:

Class times are scheduled every Mondays from 15h25 – 16h25. However, it is not mandatory to attend “class times”. The hours will be used to attend workshops or appointments. The Employability Passport Coordinator is available for Questions (via General Enquiries Appointments) Monday afternoons.

A schedule of workshops and events will be shared early in the term.

Group work

The Sprott School of Business encourages group assignments in the school for several reasons. They provide you with opportunities to develop and enhance interpersonal, communication, leadership, follower-ship and other group skills. Group assignments are also good for learning integrative skills for putting together a complex task. Your professor may assign one or more group tasks/assignments/projects in this course.

Before embarking on a specific problem as a group, it is your responsibility to ensure that the problem is meant to be a group assignment and not an individual one.

Accommodation for Student Activities

Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, that result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom experience.

Reasonable accommodation must be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. <https://carleton.ca/senate/wp-content/uploads/Accommodation-for-Student-Activities-1.pdf>

For more information on academic accommodation, please contact the departmental administrator or visit: www.students.carleton.ca/course-outline

Academic Integrity

Violations of academic integrity are a serious academic offence. Violations of academic integrity – presenting another’s ideas, arguments, words or images as your own, using unauthorized material, misrepresentation, fabricating or misrepresenting research data, unauthorized co-operation or collaboration or completing work for another student – weaken the quality of the degree and will not be tolerated.

Process: If an alleged violation occurs, all relevant documentation will be forwarded to the Dean. If the allegation proves true, the penalties may include; a grade of Failure on the submitted work and/or course; academic probation; a refusal of permission to continue or to register in a specific degree program; suspension from full-time studies; suspension from all studies at Carleton; expulsion from Carleton, amongst others. For a first offence, at a minimum, the penalty assigned will normally be a zero on the submitted work and at least a minimum full grade reduction of the final course grade. For a second offence, at a minimum, the penalty assigned will normally lead to a suspension from studies.

Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy which is available, along with resources for compliance at: <https://carleton.ca/registrar/academic-integrity/>.

Sprott Student Services

The Sprott Undergraduate Student Services Office offers program advising and overall student success support. Our team is available to discuss your academic goals and your program progression plans. We can also work with you to develop strategies for success, including study skills for Business. If you experience any difficulty this term or if you would like to access support, please contact our team at bcom@sprott.carleton.ca or at bib@sprott.carleton.ca.

Centre for Student Academic Support

The Centre for Student Academic Support (CSAS) is a centralized collection of learning support services designed to help students achieve their goals and improve their learning both inside and outside the classroom. CSAS offers academic assistance with course content, academic writing and skills development. Visit CSAS on the 4th floor of MacOdrum Library or online at: carleton.ca/csas.
