Evaluation 3	MNE Assignment	Nov 18	10%
Evaluation 4	Mid-term	Oct 14	30%
Evaluation 5	Final Exam	TBD	40%
Total			100%

All course material is eligible for testing on the final exam.

Course Components:

Current International Finance Issue/Topic of the Week (10%)

Each of the student will be assigned a week to make a small presentation in class on at least one international finance topic of the week, gleaned from any of the various news sources (see below). In preparing for the discussion of the topical issue, students must be ready to orally (i) describe briefly the key components of the topical issue (ii) itemize the key implication(s) of the issue (iii) state their personal opinions and conclusions you can draw from the topical issue. Each group will be allocated a specific week in which they will make the presentation of the current topic in class.

Country Assignment (10%)

Prepare and deliver an assignment, not more than 10 A4 size pages, on the history, status and prospects of a country's currency. The presentation is to consider the following:

- a) A brief description of the country and its economy, including key industries and products;
- b) The key political and economic events that affected the currency over the last one hundred years or so;
- c) Current key macroeconomic indicators (e.g., money supply growth, fiscal spending, deficits, balance of payments, national debt, GDP per capital, and productivity, quality of life and corruption perceptions);
- d) Current fiscal and monetary policy;
- e) Analysis on how well the country has managed its currency or is managing under a currency regime imposed upon it;
- f) Whether the country is of interest to an MNE – e.g., as a source of supply, a market, a manufacturing location; and,
- g) Concluding comments.

Please use the concepts presented in the book and in class to support your analysis. The deliverable is a word file uploaded in the dropbox in Brightspace before the due date. Please include the country name, course number_your name and year in the file name (e.g., Singapore 4504A _John Doe _Fall 2024).

Mid-term Exam (30%)

Students are required to take mid-term exam, representing 30% of the total marks for the course. The exam will be taken in class. The exam will consist of a mix of MCQ, short and long questions. More details will be provided prior to the exam in class.

MNE Assignment (10%)

Prepare and deliver an assignment, strictly limited to 15 pages, on the history, status and prospects of a Multi-National Enterprise ("MNE"). The assignment is to include the following:

- a) A brief description of the company with particular emphasis on the products or services it delivers and its comparative advantage – what does it do well compared to its competitors;
- b) The extent to which it is international – maps of locations work well here;
- c) What motivated it to become a multinational enterprise – e.g., which comparative advantages was it seeking to exploit;
- d) Challenges and difficulties the company has faced or currently faces because of its internationalization – political risk, competition risk, etc.;
- e) The company's response to controlling or managing its challenges;
- f) Whether becoming an MNE has been beneficial for the company expressed in both strategic and financial terms; and,
- g) Your own conclusion and rationale based on all the analysis

The company must be foreign. For the purposes of this course, a company is foreign if its main share listing is not the TSE or an American exchange and its head office is outside Canada or the US. Please use the concepts presented in the book and in class to support your analysis. The deliverable is a word file to be uploaded in the dropbox in Brightspace.

Final Examination (40%)

The Final Examination will cover the entire course topics, including case discussions. It will consist of Short and Long Answers.

Group work

The Sprott School of Business encourages group assignments in the school for several reasons. They provide you with opportunities to develop and enhance interpersonal, communication, leadership, follower-ship and other group skills. Group assignments are also good for learning integrative skills for putting together a complex task. Your professor may assign one or more group tasks/assignments/projects in this course. Before embarking on a specific problem as a group, it is your responsibility to ensure that the problem is meant to be a group assignment and not an individual one.

Academic Integrity

Violations of academic integrity are a serious academic offence. Violations of academic integrity – presenting another's ideas, arguments, words or images as your own, using unauthorized material, misrepresentation, fabricating or misrepresenting research data, unauthorized co-operation or collaboration or completing work for another student – weaken the quality of the degree and will not be tolerated.

Process: If an alleged violation occurs, all relevant documentation will be forwarded to the Dean. If the allegation proves true, the penalties may include; a grade of Failure on the submitted work and/or course; academic probation; a refusal of permission to continue or to register in a specific degree program; suspension from full-time studies; suspension from all studies at Carleton; expulsion from Carleton, amongst others. For a first offence, at a minimum, the penalty assigned will normally be a zero on the submitted work and at least a minimum full grade reduction of the final course grade. For a second offence, at a minimum, the penalty assigned will normally lead to a suspension from studies.

Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy which is available, along with resources for compliance at: <https://carleton.ca/registrar/academic-integrity/>.

Sprott Student Services

The Sprott Undergraduate Student Services Office offers program advising and overall student success support. Our team is available to discuss your academic goals and your program progression plans.
