COURSE DESCRIPTION FROM UNDERGRADUATE CALENDAR:

Overview of the marketing function within the firm. Introduction to key marketing concepts and principles; business environment analysis, strategic decision making (segmentation, targeting, positioning), marketing mix planning (product, price, place promotion). Analysis of marketing problems using cases and major project. [0.5 credit]

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The main objectives of this course are to introduce students to the basic marketing concepts, methods and terminology, and to enable you to develop an understanding of marketing's role in modern organizations, on the one hand, and in the Canadian economic and social framework, on the other. The course will:

- examine the role of marketing and review its theoretical justification;
- introduce the main concepts, principles, and terminology of marketing;
- study environmental forces in markets and the behavior of consumers within them;
- familiarize participants with the main elements of marketing strategy;
- outline the characteristics of marketing strategies in different application contexts; and
- provide an opportunity to begin developing the analytical and implementation skills needed for effective decision making in marketing and other management disciplines.

In addition, the course is designed to provide you with an opportunity to develop basic research and communication skills necessary to marketing decision-making and a successful career in marketing. As an introductory course, it will present a comprehensive overview of the entire marketing process. Other courses offered in the Marketing area will allow you to pursue your interests in more depth.

COURSE NORMS:

Use of cuLearn

This course uses cuLearn, Carleton's new learning management system. To access your courses on cuLearn go to <http://carleton.ca/culearn>. For help and support, go to <http://carleton.ca/culearn/students>. Any unresolved questions can be directed to Computing and Communication Services (CCS) by phone at 613-520-3700 or via email at ccs_service_desk@carleton.ca.

The course cuLearn website contains all the pertinent course information. This site will be the primary source for course announcements and distribution of materials including assignments, supplemental readings, etc. Grades will be posted to cuLearn as soon as they become available. In line with Sprott policy, it is your responsibility to check your grades by clicking on 'Grades.' In case of class cancellation due to inclement weather, an announcement will be posted on cuLearn as soon as possible.

Email Policy

The best way to contact the professor is by email, and be sure to always use BUSI2208A in the subject line. In keeping with Carleton University policy, your @cmail accounts must be used for any enquiries which involve confidential student information (e.g., about grades or health issues). The professor will endeavor to answer your emails within 24 hours; you should not expect an immediate response.

Recording or Videotaping Policy

Students are not permitted to make any unauthorized recordings or video lectures. Lectures will be recorded by the instructor and made available through cuLearn.

Cellular Phone Usage Policy

The use of cellular phones is not permitted in this class. It is disruptive to the professor and other class members. If you carry a phone to class, please make sure it is turned off. If your cell phone rings during class, you will be asked to leave the class and not return that day. If an emergency situation requires you to keep your cell phone turned on, please discuss this with the instructor prior to the class.

Laptop Usage Policy

Laptop use in class is allowed for activities related to the class only. Do not use your laptop for any other purposes (e.g., surfing, emailing, etc.) which can be distractions to you and to those around you. Inappropriate use of your laptop in class will be noted and will affect your participation grade.

Course Material Sharing Policy

Student or professor materials created for this course (including presentations and posted notes/slides, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the author(s). They are intended for personal use and may not be reproduced or redistributed without prior written consent of the author(s).

EVALUATION CRITERIA:

To accomplish the course objectives several learning methods are utilized. You are strongly encouraged to participate in class discussions, which are the best vehicle to fully express your ideas and to let others benefit from them. A case analysis will help develop and test your decision-making and communication abilities. Short cases and/or other exercises may also be integrated into the course lectures and discussions. A comprehensive project will give you the opportunity to probe and report on a marketing situation that is of particular interest to you (and your group members). An in-class midterm exam and a final examination will help you consolidate the knowledge acquired throughout the course. The evaluation criteria are summarized as follows:

1. Class Participation (Individual)	5%
2. Case Analysis (Group)	20%
3. Final Marketing Plan Project (Group)	25%
4. Midterm Exam	20%
5. Final Exam	30%
Total	100%
*Bonus Marks	Up to 2%

NOTE: To pass this course, students must achieve

- (i) a minimum grade of 50% on the final exam,
- (ii) a minimum grade of 50% on the case analysis report, and
- (iii) a minimum grade of 50% on the final group project.

Satisfactory In-term Performance

- The criterion/criteria and the standard(s) for Satisfactory In-term Performance are as follow(s):
 - Minimum grade of 50% on the case report
 - Minimum grade of 50% on the total grade for the final group project (presentation + written report = total grade).
 - Minimum grade of 50% on the final exam
- Unsatisfactory In-term Performance in this course will lead to:
Failure in this course (regardless of the performance at the Final exam or final project) Yes No

1. Class Participation:

Class participation will count for 5% of your final grade. Your engagement and participation are necessary for learning and success. Class participation is equivalent to professionals' participation in meetings. It is, therefore, considered important to success in this course. Mere attendance does not count towards class participation. Effective participation implies active and continuous contribution to class proceedings on the part of students in the form of raising or answering questions, commenting on issues raised by the instructor or other students, or bringing to the attention of the class relevant items of interest from the media or personal experiences. The professor will take attendance and keep track of student participation at each class. You are also required to keep a record of your own participation.

It is a serious violation of academic integrity to ask someone to sign an attendance sheet for you or to sign an attendance sheet for others.

Arriving to class late or leaving during a class (except in extenuating circumstances and after informing the professor) is rude to the instructor and your fellow students and disruptive of the learning environment. Such behaviour is not appreciated in any situation or organization, including this classroom and will affect your class participation mark.

Please note that attendance at the library information session is mandatory; failure to attend this class will result in a reduction of your participation grade. The penalty is 3% if missed (e.g., your final grade will be reduced by 3% for missing this session).

2 & 3. Case Analysis and Final Project:

A major take away from this course is the ability to construct a marketing plan. You will have the opportunity to practice this skill twice during the semester, both times as part of a group that you form. The first group assignment will ask you partially to complete a marketing plan for a company presented to you in a 'case study.'

For the second marketing plan assignment, you and/or your group members will find a company to work with to complete a full marketing plan. A grading rubric for each assignment will be posted on CU Learn.

4 & 5. Midterm and Final Exams:

The midterm exam will be held during regular class time. The midterm will be based on the textbook chapters and all lectures and materials covered in class up to the date of the midterm. The format of the exam will be discussed in class prior to the exam.

The final examination will be held during the formal exam period. The exact date and time will be announced later in the term. Students are advised to take final exam dates into consideration prior to making any travel arrangements. The final exam will be based on all topics covered (in class and in the readings) after the midterm.

The format of the final exam will be discussed in class. Please note: students must achieve a minimum of 50% on the final exam to pass the course.

Bonus Marks:

Students have the opportunity to earn bonus credit in this course through two means: 1) participation in research studies, OR 2) participation in skill development workshops offered by the Centre for Student Academic Support. If you choose to participate in research studies being conducted by Sprott faculty, some of these studies may be conducted online, while others will require you to go to the Behavioural Lab in 1723 Dunton Tower. Students will receive a 1% bonus credit for each hour of participation in a study, up to a maximum of 2%. This credit will be added to your final grade at the end of the term. A list of skill development workshops offered by the Centre for Student Academic Support Centre can be found here: <https://carleton.ca/csas/group-support/skill-workshops/workshop-topics-2/>. To determine when each workshop will be offered, follow the directions found here: <https://carleton.ca/csas/group-support/skill-workshops/workshop-calendar/>. Each workshop you attend, up to a maximum of 2, will earn you 1% bonus credit. This credit will be added to your final grade at the end of the term. More information will follow in class and on cuLearn.

MISSED CLASSES:

Students should attend all classes. Topics build on each other on a weekly basis; one missed class is detrimental to understanding new material. If an absence is unavoidable, the student is responsible for obtaining any missed information (i.e., contacting classmates to copy notes). To be fair to students that attended class, no class time or the professor's office time will be used to re-present the missed information.

GROUP ASSIGNMENTS:

The intent of having group assignments is to provide an opportunity for students to learn from each other in a more intimate setting than the classroom provides. Group work does NOT consist of dividing the assignment up into parts that may be completed by individuals and then throwing those parts together into one document. That is why a certain portion of the marks for each assignment are dedicated to how the assignment reads; it should flow as one piece of writing, not a collection of individual styles. Since you are considered to be working on the entire assignment together, you are all jointly and individually responsible for any infractions of academic integrity. This means that if one of you plagiarizes or fails to cite sources, all of you will receive the same penalty. You do not have recourse to the excuse that you personally did not complete that portion of the assignment – this is GROUP work. Please keep this in mind as you complete the Academic Integrity Declaration.

GROUP PEER EVALUATION:

A group grade will be assigned, but not all members in the group will necessarily receive the same grade. When the final report is turned in, each group member will turn in a group evaluation individually. The evaluation form with detailed instruction is available at the course website.

LATE PENALTY:

All assignments are due at the beginning of class. Once the lecture starts, your assignment is late. It is extremely rude to interrupt the lecture to hand your assignment in; wait until the break. Late assignments are penalized at the rate of 5% of the value of the assignment per day (e.g., an assignment worth 15 marks will be penalized 0.75 marks per day). This includes the first day. If you hand your assignment in after the lecture begins, you will lose 5%. Do NOT slide your assignment under the professor's office door – this will result in a grade of 0 for the assignment. This course is very demanding. It is to your advantage to keep up with the required work and hand your assignments in on time. No deadline extension will be given for group assignments.

INABILITY TO COMPLETE AN ASSIGNMENT OR WRITE THE MIDTERM EXAM DUE TO ILLNESS:

Students who are not able to write the midterm exam due to a certified illness will have the weight of the midterm exam added to their final examination, upon provision of the appropriate documentation at least two weeks before the final examination.

The situation of students who cannot contribute to the group case study due to certified illness will be dealt with according to the provisions of your Group Contract. Please be sure that you contribute to and are aware of the provisions outlined in your group's contract.

For all occasions that call for a medical certificate you must use or furnish the information demanded in: http://www1.carleton.ca/registrar/ccms/wp-content/ccms-files/med_cert.pdf

Group work

The Sprott School of Business encourages group assignments in the school for several reasons. They provide you with opportunities to develop and enhance interpersonal, communication, leadership, follower-ship and other group skills. Group assignments are also good for learning integrative skills for putting together a complex task. Your professor may assign one or more group tasks/assignments/projects in this course. Before embarking on a specific problem as a group, it is your responsibility to ensure that the problem is meant to be a group assignment and not an individual one.

In accordance with the Carleton University Undergraduate Calendar (p 34), the letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

A+ = 90-100	B+ = 77-79	C+ = 67-69	D+ = 57-59
A = 85-89	B = 73-76	C = 63-66	D = 53-56
A - = 80-84	B - = 70-72	C - = 60-62	D - = 50-52
F = Below 50

Requests for Academic Accommodations

For Students with Disabilities:

The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). Requests made within two weeks will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis. After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website (www.carleton.ca/pmc) for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

For Religious Obligations:

Students requesting academic accommodation on the basis of religious obligation should make a formal, written request to their instructors for alternate dates and/or means of satisfying academic requirements. Such requests should be made during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist, but no later than two weeks before the compulsory event.

Accommodation is to be worked out directly and on an individual basis between the student and the instructor(s) involved. Instructors will make accommodations in a way that avoids academic disadvantage to the student.

Students and instructors can confirm accommodation eligibility of a religious event or practice by referring to the Equity Services website (<http://carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/religious-observances/>) for a list of holy days and Carleton's Academic Accommodation policies. If there are any questions on the part of the student or instructor, they can be directed to an Equity Services Advisor in the Equity Services Department for assistance.

For Pregnancy:

Pregnant students requiring academic accommodations are encouraged to contact an Equity Advisor in Equity Services to complete a letter of accommodation. The student must then make an appointment to discuss her needs with the instructor at least two weeks prior to the first academic event in which it is anticipated the accommodation will be required.

Academic Integrity

Violations of academic integrity are a serious academic offence. Violations of academic integrity – presenting another's ideas, arguments, words or images as your own, using unauthorized material, misrepresentation, fabricating or misrepresenting research data, unauthorized co-operation or collaboration or completing work for another student – weaken the quality of the degree and will not be tolerated. Penalties may include; a grade of Failure on the submitted work and/or course; academic probation; a refusal of permission to continue or to register in a specific degree program; suspension from full-time studies; suspension from all studies at Carleton; expulsion from Carleton, amongst others. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy which is available, along with resources for compliance at: <http://carleton.ca/studentaffairs/academic-integrity>.

Sprott Student Services

The Sprott student services office, located in 710 Dunton Tower, offers academic advising, study skills advising, and overall academic success support. If you are having a difficult time with this course or others, or just need some guidance on how to successfully complete your Sprott degree, please drop in any weekday between 8:30am and 4:30pm. Our advisors are happy to discuss grades, course selection, tutoring, concentrations, and will ensure that you get connected with the resources you need to succeed! <http://sprott.carleton.ca/students/undergraduate/learning-support/>

Centre for Student Academic Support

The Centre for Student Academic Support (CSAS) is a centralized collection of learning support services designed to help students achieve their goals and improve their learning both inside and outside the classroom. CSAS offers academic assistance with course content, academic writing and skills development. Visit CSAS on the 4th floor of MacOdrum Library or online at: carleton.ca/csas.

Important Information:

- Students must always retain a hard copy of all work that is submitted.
- All final grades are subject to the Dean's approval.
- For us to respond to your emails, we need to see your full name, CU ID, and the email must be written from your valid CARLETON address. Therefore, in order to respond to your inquiries, please send all email from your Carleton CMail account.
