COURSE DESCRIPTION FROM UNDERGRADUATE CALENDAR:

Overview of the marketing function within the firm. Introduction to key marketing concepts and principles; business environment analysis, strategic decision making (segmentation, targeting, positioning), marketing mix planning (product, price, place promotion). Analysis of marketing problems using cases and major project. [0.5 credit]
COURSE OBJECTIVES
The main objectives of this course are to introduce students to the basic marketing concepts, methods and terminology, and to enable you to develop an understanding of marketing’s role in modern organizations, on the one hand, and in the Canadian economic and social framework, on the other. The course will:

- examine the role of marketing and review its theoretical justification;
- introduce the main concepts, principles, and terminology of marketing;
- study environmental forces in markets and the behaviour of consumers within them;
- familiarize participants with the main elements of marketing strategy;
- outline the characteristics of marketing strategies in different application contexts;
- facilitate the development of basic research and communication skills necessary to marketing decision-making and a successful career in marketing;
- provide an opportunity to begin developing the analytical and implementation skills needed for effective decision making; and
- provide the opportunity to develop teamwork skills and group leadership skills

As an introductory course, it will present a comprehensive overview of the entire marketing process. Other courses offered in the Marketing area will allow you to pursue your interests in more depth.

REQUIRED RESOURCES:

COURSE NORMS:
Use of cuLearn
This course uses cuLearn, Carleton’s learning management system. To access your courses on cuLearn go to http://carleton.ca/culearn. For help and support, go to http://carleton.ca/culearn/students. Any unresolved questions can be directed to Computing and Communication Services (CCS) by phone at 613-520-3700 or via email at ccs_service_desk@carleton.ca.

The course cuLearn website contains all the pertinent course information. This site will be the primary source for course announcements and distribution of materials including assignments, supplemental readings, etc. Grades will be posted to cuLearn as soon as they become available. In line with Sprott policy, it is your responsibility to check your grades by clicking on ‘Grades.’ In case of class cancellation due to inclement weather, an announcement will be posted on cuLearn as soon as possible.

Email Policy
The best way to reach the professor is by email. Please be sure to indicate BUSI 2208A in the subject line, so that I will know which of the classes I’m teaching you are taking. In keeping with Carleton University policy, your @cmail accounts must be used for any enquiries which involve confidential student information (e.g., about grades or health issues). The professor does not respond to student emails over the weekend. During the week the professor will endeavor to answer your emails within 48 hours; you should not expect an immediate response. She will also not answer by email questions that have already been asked and answered in class. Please use the cuLearn course Forum (discussion board) to ascertain whether your classmates can assist you.

Recording or Videotaping Policy
Students are NOT permitted to audio or video record any portion of the class lectures, nor are you permitted to make digital images of the lecture slides.

Cellular Phone Usage Policy
The use of cellular phones is not permitted in this class. It is disruptive to the professor and other class members. If you carry a phone to class, please make sure it is turned off. If your cell phone rings during class, you will be asked to leave the class and not return that day. If an emergency situation requires you to keep your cell phone turned on, please discuss this with the instructor prior to the class.

Laptop Usage Policy
Laptop use in class is allowed for activities related to the class only. Please do not use your laptop for any other purposes (e.g., surfing, emailing, etc.) which can be distractions to you and to those around you.

Course Material Sharing Policy
Student or professor materials created for this course (including presentations and posted notes/slides, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the author(s). They are intended for personal use and may not be reproduced or redistributed without prior written consent of the author(s).

EVALUATION CRITERIA:
To accomplish the course objectives several learning methods are utilized. You are strongly encouraged to participate in class discussions, which are the best vehicle to fully express your ideas and to let others benefit from them. Short exercises may be integrated into the course lectures and discussions. An in-class midterm exam and a final examination will help you consolidate the knowledge acquired throughout the course. The evaluation criteria are summarized as follows:

1. Class Attendance (individual) 5%
2. Partial Marketing Plan Analysis (group) 15%
3. Full Marketing Plan Report (group) 25%
4. Midterm Exam 20%
5. Final Exam 35%
6. Bonus Marks 2%
Total 102%
*Please Note: To pass this course, students must achieve
(i) a minimum grade of 50% on the final exam,
(ii) a minimum grade of 50% on the Initial Marketing Plan Analysis
(iii) a minimum grade of 50% on the Final Marketing Plan Report.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Satisfactory In-term Performance</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| - The criterion/criteria and the standard(s) for Satisfactory In-term Performance are as follow(s):
  - Minimum grade of 50% on the Initial Marketing Plan Analysis
  - Minimum grade of 50% on the Final Marketing Plan Report
  - Minimum grade of 50% on the final exam

- Unsatisfactory In-term Performance in this course will lead to:
  Failure in this course (regardless of the performance at the Final exam or final project) Yes ✗ No ☐

1. Class Attendance
Students are expected to attend all classes. Course topics build on each other on a weekly basis; missing a class can be detrimental to understanding new material. Therefore, attendance will be taken at each class and will count for 5% of your final grade. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of class. If you arrive after attendance has been taken, you are considered LATE and will NOT receive credit for attending class that day. Punctuality is important in the work place and important to your performance as a student. Arriving to class late or leaving during a class (except in extenuating circumstances and after informing the professor) is rude to the instructor and your fellow students and disruptive of the learning environment. Such behaviour is not appreciated in any situation or organization, including this classroom.

It is a serious violation of academic integrity to ask someone to sign an attendance sheet for you or to sign an attendance sheet for others. Students who violate this regulation will automatically fail the course.

If you must miss a class, you are responsible for obtaining any missed information by contacting your classmates to obtain notes or determine if any announcements, especially regarding assignment deadlines, were made.

Please note that attendance at the library information session is mandatory; failure to attend this class will result in a reduction of your final grade. The penalty is 3% (e.g., your final grade will be reduced by 3% for missing this session).

2 & 3. Initial Marketing Plan and Final Marketing Plan
A major take away from this course is the ability to construct a marketing plan. You will have the opportunity to practice this skill twice during the semester, both times as part of a group that you form. The first group assignment – the Initial Marketing Plan - will ask that you partially complete a marketing plan will ask you to partially complete a marketing plan based on the case, ‘Kookie Kutter Bakery: Crunch Time.’

https://www.iveycases.com/ProductView.aspx?id=89773

The second marketing plan assignment nt – the Final Marketing Plan Report – will focus on this same case.

To access the case, go to the course CULearn page. On the left-hand side, you will see an option to “view my course in Ares”. This will take you to the case, which has been available via Ares.

A grading rubric for each of these assignments will be posted on cuLearn. You should expect to spend a considerable amount of time and effort on this assignment, so plan your time wisely.

*It is mandatory to submit a Group Contract by September 26th in order to receive a grade on the written projects. This contract must address all of the required points listed in the Group Contract document on CuLearn.

A Declaration of Academic Integrity signed by all group members is also required for BOTH written projects.

4 & 5. Midterm and Final Exams:
The midterm exam will be held during regular class time. The midterm will be based on the textbook chapters and all lectures and materials covered in class up to the date of the midterm. The format of the exam will be discussed in class prior to the exam. If you miss the midterm exam, you may make arrangements to write a make-up exam provided that you provide me with supporting documentation, for example, a formal medical note in case of illness or a police report or funeral announcement in the case of family emergencies. In all cases, you must provide such documentation in a timely manner, e.g., before the exam is debriefed in class (see class schedule for dates).

The final examination will be held during the formal exam period (December 9-December 21, 2019). The exact date and time will be announced later in the term. Students are advised to take final exam dates into consideration prior to making any travel arrangements. The final exam will be based on all topics covered (in class and in the readings) with the heavy emphasis on the material covered after the midterm. The format of the final exam will be discussed in class.

6. Bonus Marks
As a student enrolled in BUSI 2208, you are eligible to participate in behavioural research in exchange for bonus credit in this course. You will receive 1% bonus credit for each hour of participation in a research study, up to a potential maximum of 2%. Any bonus credit earned will be added to your final grade at the end of the term. Sign-up for studies is managed via the Sprott SONA research registration system, located at https://sprott.sona-systems.com/. All students registered in this course will receive an email from “Sprott Research Study Sign-Up System” sprott-admin@sona-systems.net at the beginning of the term, containing the user ID and password that they can use to sign in. In addition to registering to take part in studies, you can use the SONA system to track your participation and ensure that your bonus credit is recorded. If you have questions, please email: behaviourlab@sprott.carleton.ca for more information.

IMPORTANT NOTE: We do not guarantee that a full 2% bonus credit will be available. Due to variations in research schedules, the number of studies offered each term will vary. In addition, since space in some studies may be limited and certain studies may only be available for a limited time, you are encouraged to register for studies as soon as they become available.

MISSING CLASSES:
Students should attend all classes. Topics build on each other on a weekly basis; one missed class is detrimental to understanding new material. If an absence is unavoidable, the student is responsible for obtaining any missed information (i.e., contacting classmates to copy notes). To be fair to students that attended class, no class time or the professor’s office time will be used to re-present the missed information.

GROUP ASSIGNMENTS:
The intent of having group assignments is to provide an opportunity for students to learn from each other in a more intimate setting than the classroom provides. Group work does NOT consist of dividing the assignment up into parts that may be completed by individuals and then throwing those parts together into one document. That is why a certain portion of the marks for each assignment are dedicated to how the assignment reads; it should flow as one piece of writing, not a collection of individual styles. Since you are considered to be working on the entire assignment together, you are all jointly and individually responsible for any infractions of academic integrity. This means that if one of you plagiarizes or fails to cite sources, all of you will receive the same penalty. You do not have recourse to the excuse that you personally did not complete that portion of the assignment – this is GROUP work. Please keep this in mind as you complete the Academic Integrity Declaration and the Group Contract.

Group Peer Evaluation
A group grade will be assigned, but not all members in the group will necessarily receive the same grade. When the final report is turned in, each group member will turn in a group evaluation individually. These evaluations may influence the individual grades assigned in the group projects. The evaluation form with detailed instruction is available at the course website. You are required to submit a peer evaluation in order to receive a grade on the final report.
LATE PENALTY:
All assignments are due at the beginning of class. Once the lecture starts, your assignment is late. Late assignments are penalized at the rate of 5% of the value of the assignment per day (e.g., an assignment worth 15 marks will be penalized 0.75 marks per day). This includes the first day. If you hand your assignment in after the lecture begins, you will lose 5%. Do NOT slide your assignment under the professor’s office door – this will result in a grade of 0 for the assignment. This course is very demanding. It is to your advantage to keep up with the required work and hand your assignments in on time. No deadline extension will be given for group assignments.

INABILITY TO COMPLETE AN ASSIGNMENT OR WRITE THE MIDTERM EXAM DUE TO ILLNESS:
The situation of students who cannot contribute to the group marketing plan assignments due to certified illness or family emergency will be dealt with on an individual basis.

For all occasions that call for a medical certificate you must use or furnish the information demanded in: https://carleton.ca/registrar/wp-content/uploads/med_cert.pdf
CLASS SCHEDULE:
While every attempt will be made to keep to the schedule listed below, unforeseen circumstances may necessitate modifications throughout the semester.

Required calculator in BUSI course examinations
If you are purchasing a calculator, we recommend any one of the following options: Texas Instruments BA II Plus (including Pro Model), Hewlett Packard HP 12C (including Platinum model), Staples Financial Calculator, Sharp EL-738C & Hewlett Packard HP 10bII

Group work
The Sprott School of Business encourages group assignments in the school for several reasons. They provide you with opportunities to develop and enhance interpersonal, communication, leadership, follower-ship and other group skills. Group assignments are also good for learning integrative skills for putting together a complex task. Your professor may assign one or more group tasks/assignments/projects in this course. Before embarking on a specific problem as a group, it is your responsibility to ensure that the problem is meant to be a group assignment and not an individual one.

In accordance with the Carleton University Undergraduate Calendar (p 34), the letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

- A+ = 90-100
- B+ = 77-79
- C+ = 67-69
- D+ = 57-59
- A   = 85-89
- B   = 73-76
- C   = 63-66
- D   = 53-56
- A-  = 80-84
- B-  = 70-72
- C-  = 60-62
- D-  = 50-52
- F    = Below 50

Grades entered by Registrar:
WDN = Withdrawn from the course
DEF = Deferred

Academic Integrity
Violations of academic integrity are a serious academic offence. Violations of academic integrity – presenting another’s ideas, arguments, words or images as your own, using unauthorized material, misrepresentation, fabricating or misrepresenting research data, unauthorized co-operation or collaboration or completing work for another student – weaken the quality of the degree and will not be tolerated. Penalties may include; a grade of Failure in the submitted work and/or course; academic probation; a refusal of permission to continue or to register in a specific degree program; suspension from full-time studies; suspension from all studies at Carleton; expulsion from Carleton, amongst others. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy which is available, along with resources for compliance at: https://carleton.ca/registrar/academic-integrity/.
Requests for Academic Accommodation
You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request, the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation
Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website:

Religious obligation
Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website:

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities
If you have a documented disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation or contact your PMC coordinator to send your instructor your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term. You must also contact the PMC no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with your instructor as soon as possible to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. carleton.ca/pmc

Survivors of Sexual Violence
As a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and is survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton’s Sexual Violence Policy.
