Office Hours: Thursday 13:00 – 16:00 and by appointment

COURSE TIMES & LOCATION:

Wednesday & Friday 13:05 – 14:25 517 Southam

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION:

Analysis and interpretation of an entity's financial statements and annual report from a user perspective. Ratio analysis is used to analyze firm performance and make forecasts of future performance. Precludes additional credit for BUSI 2002.

PREREQUISITES:

BUSI 2504 with a grade of C or higher.

The School of Business enforces all prerequisites.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course covers standards and methods used by financial and investment analysts and portfolio managers to evaluate financial statements in today's international and volatile markets. It is filled with information and strategies needed to examine the past and current performance and financial position of a company in order to form expectations and make recommendations about its future performance and financial position. It explores how to evaluate financial statement notes and supplementary information to better understand the risk and potential returns from investing in this company.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Students will be expected to demonstrate the following learning outcomes:

- Define the elements of financial statements and explain the basic principles supporting the recognition of these elements on the financial statements
- Understand the interrelationship between financial statement items

- Analyze and interpret the performance and financial stability of an organization using financial statement analysis tools and techniques
- Identify manipulation techniques that could be used to manage earnings
- Evaluate the usefulness and limitations of financial statement information
- Predict future performance based on sound reasoning and realistic assumptions

REQUIRED COURSE MATERIALS:

Required Textbook: Robinson, Henry, Pirie & Broihahn, International Financial Statement Analysis, Third Edition, Wiley, 2015

Available as e-text through Wiley.ca
or in hard copy at Haven Books (Seneca and Sunnyside)

Turning Point clicker – Responsecard: RF LCD or RF A

CPA Canada Handbook: Available on the Carleton library’s online database

GRADING:

Contribution and participation	10%
Weekly online problems	10%
Group project	20%
Midterm examination	25%
Final examination	35%
Total	100%

Contribution and participation: will be earned primarily through attendance and by answering multiple-choice questions in class using the Turning Point clicker. Clicker marks will be awarded for effort and accuracy. Inappropriate use of cell phones and other electronic device during class time will result in an absent on the attendance sheet and a cancellation of any clicker mark for that class. In normal circumstances, the top mark will be a minimum of 10 and the average mark will be a minimum of 7. In addition, there will be a bonus of up to two marks for exceptional contribution to classroom discussion and/or online use of CuLearn. Further details will be provided during the first class.

Weekly online assignments: MCQs will be answered on CuLearn on a weekly basis. The best ten out of 12 weekly assignment will be used in determining the grade out of 10. The MCQs must be answered by 8:30 AM the Monday after the chapter was completed in class except for the chapter 12 assignment which must be answered by 11:59 PM on October 21. Detailed instructions will be posted to the course website.

Group project: Each group will complete an indepth analysis of the financial statements of a public company. Based on their assessment of the future performance of the firm, the group will make a recommendation to lend or not lend money to this firm. The project is due at the beginning of class on December 2.

Midterm examination: There will be a midterm examination in class on November 2. The exams will be marked by the teaching assistant and will be handed back to you within 10 days following the date of the examination. You will then have 10 calendar days to review your results and report any discrepancies to the professor. Any discrepancies reported beyond that time period may be reviewed but will not result in any change in grade.

Final examination: The final exam will be comprehensive in nature and will cover the whole course. It will be scheduled during the formal exam period.

Midterm and final examinations: The midterm and final exams will test both the technical and conceptual aspects of the course. Only non-programmable calculators (without alpha storage capabilities) will be permitted. Translation dictionaries are allowed as long as they are in print format and do not contain any handwritten notes. Electronic translation dictionaries are not allowed. All assigned readings, in-class handouts and material from lectures are examinable.

Missed assignments and/or midterm examination: If you must miss any of the assignment and/or the midterm exam due to a verifiable illness (or, in rare cases, some other circumstances beyond your control), the weight for that assignment/exam will be transferred to the final examination. If the assignment/exam is missed without a legitimate reason, a grade of zero will be given. A medical certificate or other verifiable documentation must be submitted to the instructor no later than five (5) calendar days after the date of the assignment/exam.

COURSE WEBSITE:

The instructor will make extensive use of the course Website to post course materials, grades and other announcements. The course Website is considered an integral part of the course. Any announcements made in the course Website will be considered to have been made in class. Students are encouraged to visit the course Website at least twice a week throughout the term. The URL for the course Website is www.carleton.ca/culearn. You need to use your MyCarleton userid and password to access this Website.

SATISFACTORY IN-TERM PERFORMANCE:

Class Etiquette

1. Late arrival should be an exception. When necessary, sit on the entering side; do not disturb the class.
2. Early departure should be an exception.
3. Early preparation for departure - please don't.
4. Talking with class as a whole or with no one.
5. Not using cellphones or electronic devices for non-class related activities.

How to do well in this course

- Read the assigned material prior to each class and attempt to gain a basic understanding of the material
- Attend the classes and try to get a better understanding of the material by asking questions and working through the in-class questions along with the instructor
- After each class (and before the next class), review the material taken up in class and try to answer other MCQs to ensure you understand the material
- If there are points that you did not understand, see the TAs, instructor or ask for clarification in the next class

COLLABORATION WITH OTHERS:

Individuals/groups may collaborate with other individuals/groups to identify the issues and alternatives involved with a particular problem/case/project. However, the analysis, recommendations and final report/submission should be completed by each individual for individual work and by each group for group projects without discussing the analysis, recommendations and final report with other individuals/groups.

EMAILS:

Emails from students on matters pertaining to this course should be sent from his/her Carleton email account. The instructor will normally respond to emails within 24 hours on weekdays and at least once on the weekend.

Group work

The Sprott School of Business encourages group assignments in the school for several reasons. They provide you with opportunities to develop and enhance interpersonal, communication, leadership, follower-ship and other group skills. Group assignments are also good for learning integrative skills for putting together a complex task. Your professor may assign one or more group tasks/assignments/projects in this course. Before embarking on a specific problem as a group, it is your responsibility to ensure that the problem is meant to be a group assignment and not an individual one.

In accordance with the Carleton University Undergraduate Calendar (p 34), the letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

A+ = 90-100	B+ = 77-79	C+ = 67-69	D+ = 57-59
A = 85-89	B = 73-76	C = 63-66	D = 53-56
A - = 80-84	B - = 70-72	C - = 60-62	D - = 50-52
F = Below 50

WDN = Withdrawn from the course

ABS = Student absent from final exam

DEF = Deferred (See above)

FND = (Failed, no Deferred) = Student could not pass the course even with 100% on final exam

Academic Regulations, Accommodations, Etc.

University rules regarding registration, withdrawal, appealing marks, and most anything else you might need to know can be found on the university's website, here:

Requests for Academic Accommodations

For Students with Disabilities:

The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). Requests made within two weeks will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis. After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website (www.carleton.ca/pmc) for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

For Religious Obligations:

Students requesting academic accommodation on the basis of religious obligation should make a formal, written request to their instructors for alternate dates and/or means of satisfying academic requirements. Such requests should be made during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist, but no later than two weeks before the compulsory event.

Accommodation is to be worked out directly and on an individual basis between the student and the instructor(s) involved. Instructors will make accommodations in a way that avoids academic disadvantage to the student.

Students and instructors can confirm accommodation eligibility of a religious event or practice by referring to the Equity Services website (<http://carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/religious-observances/>) for a list of holy days and Carleton's Academic Accommodation policies. If there are any questions on the part of the student or instructor, they can be directed to an Equity Services Advisor in the Equity Services Department for assistance.

For Pregnancy:

Pregnant students requiring academic accommodations are encouraged to contact an Equity Advisor in Equity Services to complete a letter of accommodation. The student must then make an appointment to discuss her needs with the instructor at least two weeks prior to the first academic event in which it is anticipated the accommodation will be required.

Academic Integrity

Violations of academic integrity are a serious academic offence. Violations of academic integrity – presenting another’s ideas, arguments, words or images as your own, using unauthorized material, misrepresentation, fabricating or misrepresenting research data, unauthorized co-operation or collaboration or completing work for another student – weaken the quality of the degree and will not be tolerated. Penalties may include; a grade of Failure in the submitted work and/or course; academic probation; a refusal of permission to continue or to register in a specific degree program; suspension from full-time studies; suspension from all studies at Carleton; expulsion from Carleton, amongst others. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy which is available, along with resources for compliance at: <http://www2.carleton.ca/sasc/advisingcentre/academic-integrity/>.
