Course Calendar description from the 2016/2017 University calendar:

Introduction to the context and operation of international business. Topics include international trade theory, trade agreements and blocs, international finance, global marketing, international human resource management and global strategy.

Course Description:

International business is an aspect of human enterprise that impacts most people, governments and institutions around the world. Whether you are a consumer of a product imported from a foreign nation, the government of a developing country hoping to create jobs through investment from a multinational corporation, or a domestic company suddenly experiencing competition from an offshore firm, you are affected by the laws, agreements and institutions that govern international business. This course will examine the conceptual and practical aspects of international business and the management of firms operating in an international environment. Topics will include international trade theory, the international business environment, trade agreements and regional economic integration, and global strategy and marketing.

Learning Objectives:

1. Understand why countries and businesses engage in international trade.
2. Understand the economic, legal, political and cultural aspects of the environments in which multinational businesses operate.
3. Become familiar with regional economic organizations / agreements such as the European Union and the North American Free Trade Agreement, and International Trade Organizations such as the World Trade Organization.
4. Understand how basic business functions (e.g. marketing) are affected when operations involve multiple countries and cultures.

Individual	Assignment #2	20%
	Midterm Exam	20%
	Formally Scheduled Final Exam	40%
	Total	100%

Assignments

Assignment #1 is an evaluation of a country for potential investment from Canada. Assignment #2 is an evaluation of a specific company engaged in international business. Detailed requirements for the assignment will be posted on CuLearn. Assignments must be uploaded on CuLearn before deadline (beginning of class on the due date indicated in the Course Schedule below). No hard copies and submissions by emails accepted. Please ensure that all submissions include name and student number.

Late assignment policy: Late assignments are not accepted and result in an automatic 0%. No exceptions.

Midterm Test and Final Test

The midterm test will be held during regular class time and will consist of multiple choice questions based on the textbook chapters assigned up to the test date and all lectures and materials covered in class. Students who are unable to write the midterm exam due to a certified illness will have the weight of the midterm exam added to their final test. Students missing the midterm for a certified illness must notify me - before the midterm if possible, otherwise within 48 hours following the midterm - otherwise the weight of the midterm will not be shifted to the final exam. The final test will be held during the formal exam period and will be based on the textbook chapters and all lectures and materials covered in class (with an emphasis on material covered subsequent to the midterm for multiple choice questions).

Communications

Information will be communicated during class on a regular basis. In addition, this information will be posted on CuLearn. This site will be the primary source for course materials including announcements, assignments, supplemental lecture slides, etc.

Therefore, please check the course CuLearn site very regularly. In case of class cancellation due to inclement weather or other unforeseen circumstances, an announcement will be posted on CuLearn as soon as possible.

I will aim to answer your emails within 24 hours. However, for questions that have already been covered in class, please review the course outline and other documents posted on CuLearn, and use the CuLearn course discussion group to find out whether your classmates can assist you. Note that Carleton University requires that you use your Carleton email account. Clearly indicate course and section in the subject line to speed up replies. Before embarking on a specific problem as a group, it is your responsibility to ensure that the problem is meant to be a group assignment and not an individual one.

Requests for Academic Accommodations

For Students with Disabilities:

The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are appropriate and can be made. The deadlines for contacting the Paul Menton Centre regarding accommodations for December exams is November 11, 2016.

For Religious Obligations:

Students requesting academic accommodation on the basis of religious obligation should make a formal, written request to their instructors for alternate dates and/or means of satisfying academic requirements. Such requests should be made during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist, but no later than two weeks before the compulsory event.

Accommodation is to be worked out directly and on an individual basis between the student and the instructor(s) involved. Instructors will make accommodations in a way that avoids academic disadvantage to the student.

Students and instructors can confirm accommodation eligibility of a religious event or practice by referring to the Equity Services website (<http://carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/religious-observances/>) for a list of holy days and Carleton's Academic Accommodation policies. If there are any questions on the part of the student or instructor, they can be directed to an Equity Services Advisor in the Equity Services Department for assistance.

For Pregnancy:

Pregnant students requiring academic accommodations are encouraged to contact an Equity Advisor in Equity Services to complete a letter of accommodation. The student must then make an appointment to discuss her needs with the instructor at least two weeks prior to the first academic event in which it is anticipated the accommodation will be required.

Academic Integrity

Violations of academic integrity are a serious academic offence. Violations of academic integrity – presenting another's ideas, arguments, words or images as your own, using unauthorized material, misrepresentation, fabricating or misrepresenting research data, unauthorized co-operation or collaboration or completing work for another student –

Penalties may include; a grade of Failure in the submitted work and/or course; academic probation; a refusal of permission to continue or to register in a specific degree program; suspension from full-time studies; suspension from all studies at Carleton; expulsion from Carleton, amongst others. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy which is available, along with resources for compliance at: <http://carleton.ca/studentaffairs/academic-integrity>.
