Entrepreneurship

Overview of the basics of entrepreneurship, with emphasis on idea generation and identification, team building, business models, initial strategies and feasibility. A number of organization types will be studied.

Pre-requisite(s): second-year standing.

1. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course targets students who aspire to:

- Own a start-up that generates $1 million annual revenue within three years after completing Sprott's B.Com. Entrepreneurship Concentration or Sprott's Minor in Entrepreneurship
- Work for a start-up or an organization that fosters entrepreneurship

BUSI 2800 is the introductory course required in both the minor and concentration in Entrepreneurship at the Sprott School of Business and is focused on the initial elements of new venture creation. Following an application based approach, student teams will learn how to build high performance entrepreneurial teams, assess the feasibility of innovative opportunities they have originated, develop competitive business models, build a minimum viable product, and test their value propositions with potential customers.

2. COURSE PREREQUISITES

Second year standing. The School of Business enforces all prerequisites. It is your responsibility to ensure that you meet the prerequisite requirements for this course. Lack of prerequisite knowledge may lead to failure in the course. Only the Undergraduate Program Advisor of the School can waive prerequisite requirements.

3. COURSE OBJECTIVES

This course enables students to gain experience doing entrepreneurship and developing hard-to-find skills, not just make students aware of entrepreneurship. Specific objectives include acquiring the tools and expertise to:

- a) Build high performance entrepreneurial teams,
- b) Create/discover innovative opportunities;
- c) Critically assess their feasibility;
- d) Develop and test business models using minimum viable products;
- e) Perform customer validation, pivoting as required.

4. METHOD OF INSTRUCTION

Students will learn key entrepreneurial concepts through experiential learning, lectures, simulations, videos and interactions with successful entrepreneurs. The format of the course consists generally of one 170-minute class meeting per week. The primary role of the course instructor is to lead discussion and experiential learning in practical applications of course concepts. Class sessions entail a mixture of lecture, videos, problem analysis, guest speakers and class discussion. The content of any lecture presumes and expects that you have carefully studied the assigned reading. Lectures emphasize major topics and readings, yet you are responsible for all assigned materials. It requires active learning, which means that the student must take responsibility for the learning that takes place. You must do the readings and homework assigned in order to be prepared for each class. You are encouraged to ask questions and to stimulate discussion on topics that are of interest to the class.

PLEASE NOTE: This course uses cuLearn, Carleton's learning management system. To access your courses on cuLearn go to <http://carleton.ca/culearn>. Any questions can be directed to Computing and Communication Services (CCS) by phone at 613-520-3700 or email at ccs_service_desk@carleton.ca. As online resources will be used extensively in this course, you will need to bring an up-to-date laptop to class. Inappropriate use of your wireless/laptop in class will be noted and will affect your grade.

Students will be responsible for reading and responding appropriately to all information distributed through the CuLearn Course Page. In case of class cancellation due to inclement weather or other unforeseen circumstances, an announcement will be posted on CuLearn as soon as possible.

Note that the School requires that correspondence with professors be carried out through your Carleton email account only.

5. COURSE MATERIAL

Required Text. The following textbook is a requirement for BUSI 2800 Entrepreneurship:

6. EVALUATION

Reflecting the real world of entrepreneurship, your grade performance will depend upon both individual and group contributions as outlined below:

	Entrepreneur Learning Project Option
Personal Assignments (3)	15%
Entrepreneur Learning Project (group of 2 students)	15%
New Venture Project (group of 4 students)	35%
Final exam	35%
Total	100%

Personal Assignments. Students will be assigned activities outside of the classroom which are intended to apply course concepts to their individual entrepreneurial situation. As plenty of time is provided for assignments, no credit is given for posting a late assignment. A missed assignment supported by medical documentation will result in those marks shifted to the remaining assignments. Further instructions will be posted on the course CuLearn site.

Entrepreneur Learning Project. Students will have the opportunity to engage active entrepreneurs and share their learnings for credit. This project should be conducted in pairs. At the completion of the course, the instructor may adjust group assignment marks awarded to individuals based on peer feedback

New Venture Project. The primary objective of group projects in this course is to provide experiential learning in the skills necessary for developing real business opportunities with high performance teams. Key learnings include: leading/building entrepreneurial teams, opportunity formation and structuring, feasibility assessment, business models, crafting a minimal viable product, validation with potential customers and presenting promising opportunities to others. Students will be placed into teams of four with the assistance of the course instructor. Group formation will reflect the same best practices of diversity used in successful entrepreneurial endeavours. No late assignments will be accepted. At the completion of the course, the instructor may adjust group assignment marks awarded to individuals based on peer feedback.

Final Exam. There will be a final exam covering the complete contents of the course material. Details will be announced before the end of the term. The final exam will count for 35%.

7. CONDUCT

Professional conduct is built upon the idea of mutual respect. Such conduct entails (but is not necessarily limited to):

- Attending the class. Each class benefits from the attendance and participation of all students. Your grade for participation will be affected by absences. Regular class attendance is important and required. I expect you to attend class and contribute to a quality discussion. Class and team discussion of the materials (e.g., readings, assignments, and cases) are an important part of the learning process. If circumstances prevent attendance at a class meeting, please remember that you are responsible for all materials discussed, handouts distributed, assignments covered, and announcements made. Missing more than 2 classes without a certified reason (e.g. medical certificate) will lead to failure in this course regardless of the performance on assignments, presentations and reports.
- Arriving on time. Late arrivals are disruptive to both lectures and class discussion, and show disrespect to those who are on time.
- Minimizing disruptions. You should not leave and re-enter the class. You should avoid engaging in side conversations after class has begun.
- Focusing on the class. While you may take notes on laptops, do not use laptop computers or hand-held devices for other tasks while in class. Activities such as net surfing, and answering email are very impolite and disruptive both to neighbors and the class.
- Being prepared for class. You should be ready to discuss any assigned readings and to answer any assigned questions for each day's class, including being ready to open a case assigned for that day.
- Cellular phones. The use of cellular phones IS NOT PERMITTED in this class. It is disruptive to the instructor and class members. If you carry a phone to class, please make sure it is turned off. If an emergency situation requires you to keep your cell phone turned on you may wish to keep the silent mode on, please discuss this with the instructor prior to the class starting.

Group work

The Sprott School of Business encourages group assignments in the school for several reasons. They provide you with opportunities to develop and enhance interpersonal, communication, leadership, follower-ship and other group skills. Group assignments are also good for learning integrative skills for putting together a complex task. Your professor may assign one or more group tasks/assignments/projects in this course. Before embarking on a specific problem as a group, it is your responsibility to ensure that the problem is meant to be a group assignment and not an individual one.

In accordance with the Carleton University Undergraduate Calendar (p 34), the letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

A+ = 90-100	B+ = 77-79	C+ = 67-69	D+ = 57-59
A = 85-89	B = 73-76	C = 63-66	D = 53-56

Requests for Academic Accommodation

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request, the processes are as follows:

Pregnancy obligation

Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

Religious obligation

Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

If you have a documented disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation or contact your PMC coordinator to send your instructor your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term. You must also contact the PMC no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with your instructor as soon as possible to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. carleton.ca/pmc

Survivors of Sexual Violence

As a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and its survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton's Sexual Violence Policy. For more information about the services available at the university and to obtain information about sexual violence and/or support, visit: carleton.ca/sexual-violence-support

Accommodation for Student Activities

Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, that result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom experience. Reasonable accommodation must be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. <https://carleton.ca/senate/wp-content/uploads/Accommodation-for-Student-Activities-1.pdf>

Academic Integrity

Violations of academic integrity are a serious academic offence. Violations of academic integrity – presenting another's ideas, arguments, words or images as your own, using unauthorized material, misrepresentation, fabricating or misrepresenting research data, unauthorized co-operation or collaboration or completing work for another student – weaken the quality of the degree and will not be tolerated. Penalties may include; a grade of Failure on the submitted work and/or course; academic probation; a refusal of permission to continue or to register in a specific degree program; suspension from full-time studies; suspension from all studies at Carleton; expulsion from Carleton, amongst others. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy which is available, along with resources for compliance at: <https://carleton.ca/registrar/academic-integrity/>.

Sprott Student Services

The Sprott student services office, located in 710 Dunton Tower, offers academic advising, study skills advising, and overall academic success support. If you are having a difficult time with this course or others, or just need some guidance on how to successfully complete your Sprott degree, please drop in any weekday between 8:30am and 4:30pm. Our advisors are happy to discuss grades, course selection, tutoring, concentrations, and will ensure that you get connected with the resources you need to succeed! <http://sprott.carleton.ca/students/undergraduate/learning-support/>

Centre for Student Academic Support

The Centre for Student Academic Support (CSAS) is a centralized collection of learning support services designed to help students achieve their goals and improve their learning both inside and outside the classroom. CSAS offers academic assistance with course content, academic writing and skills development. Visit CSAS on the 4th floor of MacOdrum Library or online at: carleton.ca/csas.
