Following completion of this course, students should be able to:

1. Understand the basic principles, concepts, and practices of HRM,
2. Appreciate the contribution of HRM to organizational effectiveness,
3. Effectively utilize their knowledge and analytical skills in the application of HRM, and
4. Appreciate the complex role of HRM in meeting the demands of individuals, organizations, and society.

COURSE FORMAT AND GRADING SCHEME:

Grades will be determined based on the following components:

HRM Simulation Quiz	5%
In-Class Exercises (2 @ 5% each)	10%

- HRM Simulation Project: 30%
 - Detailed information on the HRM Simulation group project is provided on pages 3 - 6 of this outline. Decisions and incident responses for the simulation are to be submitted on-line by 12 p.m. the next Monday following classes on Oct. 7, Oct. 14, Nov. 4, Nov. 11, Nov. 18, and Nov. 25. The final project report is due Dec. 9. Please ensure you submit the report to me in class on Dec. 5th or leave under my office door (DT 901) by 11:59 p.m on Dec. 9th. Late reports will receive a penalty of 10%/day.

 - There are two exams for this course. The midterm is scheduled for Oct. 21. The date, time, and location of the final exam will be announced later in the term. Both exams will consist of multiple choice questions and will be based on the textbook and material covered in class, including lectures, in-class activities, and discussion.

INSTRUCTOR'S NOTES:

1. It is strongly recommended that you read the assigned textbook chapters before coming to class.
2. Please check your cuLearn account on a weekly basis. It is your responsibility to access this site regularly for any course updates / announcements.
3. Please arrive to class on time, and turn off all cell phones and personal entertainment and communication devices. Laptops should only be used for class-related purposes

HRM SIMULATION PROJECT

Each student will participate in the HRM Simulation (<http://www.interpretive.com>) which highlights the principles taught in the course and provides players with simulated real world experience in making HR decisions and observing their impact. You will be assigned to groups of 4 or 5 for this project. The HRM Simulation will require groups to work collectively to manage a budget and make a series of HR decisions throughout the term, hand in a final report at the end of the course, and complete peer performance evaluations.

At the beginning of the simulation, your group will meet together to set goals on the various parameters of the simulation. After your goals have been set, there will be 1 "practice" simulation decision followed by 6 "actual" decision periods (each decision period is a fiscal quarter, so there will be a total of 6 quarters after the practice decision). The simulation decision period for a given week will be opened during class time (Friday) and closed at 12:00 PM the next Monday following class. The "practice" round will be played in "benchmark mode" (i.e., against the computer) and will allow you to play and replay the round as many times as you wish. When the "actual" simulation begins, it will be played in "direct competition mode" (i.e., each team will be competing against other teams in their industry) and decisions are final once they have been submitted.

Each team must appoint a team leader who will finalize and “lock down” the team’s decisions.

The HRM Simulation Project is worth 30% of the final course grade. This 30% is calculated based on the following components:

Incident Decisions	6 marks
Industry Rankings	6 marks
Simulation Report	18 marks
Total:	30 marks

Incident Decisions (6 marks – 6 incident decisions @ 1 mark each)

At the time of each decision, you will also need to respond to an HR-related incident that is described in the “Special” section of the Decisions tab of the simulation. Your response will consist of two components. First, when making your on-line decision for the simulation, you will indicate the option that you select in the “Special” section of the Decisions tab. Second, you will be required to submit a written response for each incident in which you briefly describe what challenge the incident presents to the organization (i.e., the problem), what you would do to address the incident (i.e., the incident decision you made), and why you made that decision (i.e., the rationale). This should not exceed 1 page and must be submitted by the same Monday in which that particular simulation decision is due. Procedures for submitting these incident responses will be described during class.

The narrative incident responses will be graded based on the following criteria:

- (1) the extent to which the response represents a good understanding of the incident and the challenge it presents to HR and the organization;
- (2) the quality of the rationale that is provided for the proposed incident decision.

Industry Rankings (6 marks – 2 rankings @ 3 marks each)

After decisions 4 and 6, your team’s overall ranking within the industry will be calculated based on the balanced scorecard metric used in the simulation system. Equal weighting of each of the 10 performance indicators assessed in the simulation is used in tabulating this overall ranking. On each of these occasions, teams that are ranked in the top quartile of the industry will be awarded 3 marks; teams ranked in the second quartile will be awarded 2 marks; teams in the third quartile will be awarded 1.5 marks; teams in the bottom quartile will receive 1 mark. Teams that exceed their budgets in quarters 4 and 6 will be penalized for exceeding the budget.

Final Report (18 marks)

The report is intended to be a Management Audit of your team’s simulation goals, strategies, decisions, and outcomes. In essence, you should describe the goals that you set, the strategies that you used, and the key decisions that you made throughout the simulation. You should also discuss the strengths and weaknesses of these strategies and decisions in light of what you have learned about HRM from the text and lecture material throughout the course. You should consider questions such as:

- Why did you make certain decisions? What effects did you think they would have on the various indicators of the simulation (e.g., morale, turnover, etc.)?
- What decisions worked for you as you thought they would? Why?
- What decisions did not have the effects you thought they would? Why not?
- What would you do differently if you completed the simulation again?
- More broadly, you should discuss how and why various strategies and decisions (e.g., specific programs) affect specific performance indicators.

If your group experienced any major deviations (especially budget), you should include a section in which you discuss: (1) the source of the deviation and (2) what remedial action was taken or should be taken in the future to address it.

The report should be typed using Times New Roman or Calibri 12-point font, double-spaced, and max. 8 pages in length, PLUS graphs and other appendices. The report should be sufficiently detailed to explain the HRM simulation results to someone who has no familiarity with the decisions you made during the project. Writing quality (e.g., spelling, grammar, structure, etc.) is very important.

The Final Report will be graded according to the following criteria:

- (1) Completeness
 - All requested information is included
 - All key questions are addressed in a complete and accurate manner
- (2) Depth of analysis
 - Discussion of the possible reasons for the effectiveness or ineffectiveness of various decisions is insightful and thorough
 - Potential linkages between different strategies/decisions and various performance indicators are discussed, drawing on textbook/lecture material and other sources to make these linkages
- (3) Clarity and quality of structure and writing
 - Layout and format of report is professional
 - Writing quality: spelling, punctuation, grammar, sentence structure, etc.
 - References are provided to support key points/arguments.

Peer Evaluations

Each team member will be required to evaluate the contributions of other team members in relation to the overall performance and functioning of the team. These evaluations will be completed independent from other team members and kept confidential from them. Although in most cases individual group members will receive the same final grade on the simulation project, the instructor reserves the right to adjust individual grades downward if it is determined that certain individuals' contributions to the project were inadequate.

Group work

The Spratt School of Business encourages group assignments in the school for several reasons. They provide you with opportunities to develop and enhance interpersonal, communication, leadership, follower-ship and other group skills. Group assignments are also good for learning integrative skills for putting together a complex task. Your professor may assign one or more group tasks/assignments/projects in this course. Before embarking on a specific problem as a group, it is your responsibility to ensure that the problem is meant to be a group assignment and not an individual one.

In accordance with the Carleton University Undergraduate Calendar (p 34), the letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

A+ = 90-100	B+ = 77-79	C+ = 67-69	D+ = 57-59
A = 85-89	B = 73-76	C = 63-66	D = 53-56
A - = 80-84	B - = 70-72	C - = 60-62	D - = 50-52
F = Below 50

WDN = Withdrawn from the course

ABS = Student absent from final exam

DEF = Deferred (See above)

FND = (Failed, no Deferred) = Student could not pass the course even with 100% on final exam

FND:

To reduce instances of miscommunication Carleton introduced a grade FND (Failure with No Deferral) to be assigned to students who fail to meet the minimum in-term performance standards explicitly set out in the outline and applied consistently (i.e., there is no other hidden criteria).

Satisfactory In-term Performance

1. The requirement for Satisfactory In-term Performance is set at 50% of all, not each, pre-final term work (i.e. assignments, participation marks, tests etc.).
2. Unsatisfactory In-term Performance in this course will lead to failure in this course (regardless of the performance at the Final exam or final project)

Academic Regulations, Accommodations, Etc.

University rules regarding registration, withdrawal, appealing marks, and most anything else you might need to know can be found on the university's website, here:

Requests for Academic Accommodations

For Students with Disabilities:

The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are appropriate and can be made. The deadlines for contacting the Paul Menton Centre regarding accommodations for December exams is November 11, 2016.

For Religious Obligations:

Students requesting academic accommodation on the basis of religious obligation should make a formal, written request to their instructors for alternate dates and/or means of satisfying academic requirements. Such requests should be made during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist, but no later than two weeks before the compulsory event.

Accommodation is to be worked out directly and on an individual basis between the student and the instructor(s) involved. Instructors will make accommodations in a way that avoids academic disadvantage to the student.

Students and instructors can confirm accommodation eligibility of a religious event or practice by referring to the Equity Services website (<http://carleton.ca/equity/accommodation/religious-observances/>) for a list of holy days and Carleton's Academic Accommodation policies. If there are any questions on the part of the student or instructor, they can be directed to an Equity Services Advisor in the Equity Services Department for assistance.

For Pregnancy:

Pregnant students requiring academic accommodations are encouraged to contact an Equity Advisor in Equity Services to complete a letter of accommodation. The student must then make an appointment to discuss her needs with the instructor at least two weeks prior to the first academic event in which it is anticipated the accommodation will be required.

Academic Integrity

Violations of academic integrity are a serious academic offence. Violations of academic integrity – presenting another's ideas, arguments, words or images as your own, using unauthorized material, misrepresentation, fabricating or misrepresenting research data, unauthorized co-operation or collaboration or completing work for another student – weaken the quality of the degree and will not be tolerated. Penalties may include; a grade of Failure in the submitted work and/or course; academic probation; a refusal of permission to continue or to register in a specific degree program; suspension from full-time studies; suspension from all studies at Carleton; expulsion from Carleton, amongst others. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy which is available, along with resources for compliance at: <http://www2.carleton.ca/sasc/advisingcentre/academic-integrity/>.
