BUSI 3611 A [0.5 credit]
Managing the Family Enterprise

How family businesses are different, what makes them different and how to effectively manage these differences. Challenges arising from the tension between family and business pressures from governance, management and succession planning perspectives.

Learning Objectives:

- To understand the key differences between family and non-family businesses. Students will leave the course with an appreciation of the advantages / disadvantages of family ownership and how to manage these effectively.
- To understand how and why the field of family business emerged as a distinct discipline. Students will leave the course with an appreciation of the evolution of family business theory and empirical research.

- To understand the unique challenges arising from management and ownership succession in a family-owned firm. Students will learn how to recognize and respond to common issues.
- To become familiar with the concept of Guiding Principles and Family Business Rules. Students will leave the course with a working knowledge of best practices and how to apply / customize them for individual family businesses.
- To appreciate the special importance of governance in family-owned enterprises, and form a working knowledge of critical governance structures: Family Business Meetings, Family Council Meetings and Family Assemblies. Students will leave the course with an ability to manage these structures effectively within a firm.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Missed or Late Term Work

The only valid excuse for missing a deadline or midterm is for medical reasons or death in the family and must be documented with a medical certificate. Any other reason (such as travel, etc...) will not be considered. In such circumstances, separate arrangements may be made. If you miss a deadline for a reason that is not deemed as legitimate, your mark will be zero.

Course Sharing Websites

Materials created for this course (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the author(s). They are intended for personal use and may not be reproduced or redistributed without prior written consent of the author(s).

Group work

The Spratt School of Business encourages group assignments in the school for several reasons. They provide you with opportunities to develop and enhance interpersonal, communication, leadership, follower-ship and other group skills. Group assignments are also good for learning integrative skills for putting together a complex task. Your professor may assign one or more group tasks/assignments/projects in this course. Before embarking on a specific problem as a group, it is your responsibility to ensure that the problem is meant to be a group assignment and not an individual one.

In accordance with the Carleton University Undergraduate Calendar (p 34), the letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

A+ = 90-100	B+ = 77-79	C+ = 67-69	D+ = 57-59
A = 85-89	B = 73-76	C = 63-66	D = 53-56
