Course Description
Analysis and evaluation of the organization's corporate and business strategies; integration and synthesis of knowledge acquired in the program by application of acquired functional skills to strategic decision making.

Elaboration:
This capstone course encourages students to integrate the lessons learned in all core (first, second and third year) BCom courses across all business functional areas. Students are expected to competently utilize reliable databases in this course as part of the strategic empirical analysis of publicly traded firms.

Please visit our course outlines page for current, detailed course syllabi.

Applicants
The School places great emphasis on the hands-on integration of business theory and practice and actively encourages applications from working professionals. Candidates applying for a Contract Instructor position must possess a minimum of a Master’s degree in Management (or equivalent) and relevant experience in university-level teaching. The candidate should have at least five years management experience and recent (within the last 5 years) experience in a progressively responsible, senior position relevant to the subject.

Preference* will be given to candidates with a PhD or equivalent with a strong record of research publications and productivity consistent with AACSB guidelines for a doctoral granting business school. Relevant professional designations such as MBA, CPA, CFA will be an asset.
All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply. Individuals interested in teaching this course must complete an application and forward with CV (include all courses taught at Carleton University) to teaching@sprott.carleton.ca

*In accordance with Articles 16.3 and 16.4 in the CUPE 4600-2 Collective Agreement, the posted vacancies listed above are first offered to qualified applicants meeting the incumbency criteria as determined from the CV and interview. A link to the current CUPE 4600-2 Collective Agreement can be found at the Employment Agreements webpage on the Carleton University Human Resources website and the CUPE 4600-2 website.

Please note that successful incumbents of this posting may be required to support the Assurance of Learning (AOL) process for the course as part of the formal responsibilities of the position. More details and training will be provided as needed.

Closing date for this position is March 27, 2024

The modality of this course is determined by the University (in-person, online, or hybrid). In the event public health authorities impose public health restrictions, part or all of this course may need to be delivered online as required by the University and as directed by public health authorities.
