INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

International HRM provides an introduction to the critical issues facing Multinational Corporations (MNCs) in simultaneously managing their human resources at home and abroad. It focuses on the connection between corporate strategies and the effective management of human resources, which at times, may require differing policies across countries. The course is based on the notion that competitive firms and economies require appropriate structures, policies, and strategies for managing their employees at every level of the enterprise.

PREREQUISITES:

Third-year standing in B.Com. International Business Concentration or in B.I.B. program, BUSI 3102 and BUSI 3703, or BUSI 3103.

REQUIRED READING MATERIALS: (They will be given on the first session)

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- a) Understand the complexity of IHRM, the challenges in existing IHRM practices and current models in Retention, Recruitment and Selection, Staffing and Compensation within IHRM in MNCs.
- b) Understand how cultures and environmental constraints, influence human resources practices.
- c) Learn how MNCs balance integration and localization of their human resource management systems.
- d) Learn the major approaches MNCs take to the staffing and management of international operations, and how they are interdependent with the management of domestic operations. This includes learning about the management of expatriates, local managers and third country nationals.
- e) The development of global leaders. Issues related to MNCs performance management considering the volatility of the global environment.

METHOD OF EVALUATION

1. Class Attendance and Participation (CAP)

CAP is the classroom equivalent to professionals participation in meetings. It is an important part of success in this course. Performance will be assessed by the instructor based on each participant's contribution, which may take the form, among others, of raising or answering questions, offering comments, enriching the class with relevant items of interest from the media or personal experiences, taking part in brief in class and or take home quizzes, cases, or other exercises, and overall effort throughout the term. To participate, one has to be in class. (The final mark will be form by 40% from the attendance to the sessions and 60% from the participation in class). In almost each session there will be an exercise to be done by groups most of the time during the session. Participation is compulsory for all the group members.

2.- In Class Test 1 and Test 2

These exams will help consolidate the knowledge that you acquire during the course. The format will be multiple choice and short essay questions. Each exam will take about one hour and thirty minutes.

2. International Human Resource Management Project.

The objective of this project during the term is to “understand and apply the concepts of IHRM inside an organization within a specific country”. This project will enable you to:

- a) Focus on a topic within IHRM of your choice within an specific country.
- b) Learn about your chosen topic by drawing information from a number of cognate disciplines and to be able to transmit this information to the rest of the class.
- c) Learn more about the importance of your topic of election at the work environment of a MNCs.

This IHRM project will be form of:

- a) Topic Research, Class Presentation (15 minutes activity)
- b) Final Written Report applying concepts to an International Company.
- c) Final Project Presentation to the class (20 minutes and 10 minutes questions).

Specific Requirements for the Topic Research Class Presentation:

- The Topic Research and Class Presentation will be handled on a team basis.
- The team members will have to choose from given topics within IHRM.
- Each team must prepare a 15 minutes presentation to the class about the research done in a chosen topic of IHRM.
- The power point presentation of the research analysis must be submitted both in hard copy the day of the presentation and by email the day before the presentation (at 12:00 pm ‘the latest’). It must be no longer than fifteen slides (15), Introduction, research analysis about the articles, conclusion plus appendices and references.
- Each group member should have a speaking role in the presentation.
- Groups must also conduct a class discussion after their presentation, engaging the class on the their specific topic and their research findings. It is recommended that groups have prepared 2 to 3 discussion questions related to the articles used in their presentation of their research analysis.
- Note that part of the overall mark for the presentation will be based on the group's efforts to engage the class. Consider ways to make your presentation as interactive as possible (i.e. group exercises, case analysis, problem simulation, etc.)
- The research and presentation must be based on recent and relevant articles found on the topic found in academic journals. Each group must submit a bibliography containing a minimum of two (2) articles from academic journals per team member. The articles must be included as an appendix.
- Each student must submit by the day of the presentation a peer evaluation of their group. This will represent a percentage of the final mark for the group project.

Specific Requirements for the Final project:

- Each team must submit a final written report on its chosen topic about the organization chosen for their final project. This must be up to twenty pages.
- Please note that part of the mark will be based on correct, appropriate and consistent referencing.

- Each group will make a formal executive class presentation of 20' to 30' on its findings to the organization.
- The Instructor expects to meet with each team at least three times during the term to discuss the advance in the project.(This meetings are compulsory)
- The final project must be submitted both in hard copy and by email, on the day they were assigned for their presentations.
- The presentations of the final project must be submitted by email.
- Each student must submit a peer evaluation of their group at the beginning of the class on the day of their presentation.. This will represent a percentage of the final mark for the group project.

If you must miss the In Class Test 1 or 2 due to verifiable illness (or, in rare cases, some other circumstances beyond your control) you may apply to shift the weight of the In class 1 to In class test 2 by submitting a medical certificate or other verifiable documentation to me—the instructor—no later than five (5) calendar days after the date of the In class test . Please use the medical certificate form found at: <http://www.carleton.ca/registrar/forms/Med Cert Carleton University.pdf>

Citations:

Equally important you are being graded in part on the degree, depth and quality of your empirical research, demonstrated by citations to appropriate sources. A minimal number of citations points to inadequate research. Ensure that you cite every graph, table, report, quote, original idea or piece of information taken from somewhere else, to avoid plagiarism. When in doubt, cite, paying particular attention to correctly identify phrases as quotations with precise references to their source. To compile the list of works cited (bibliography or reference list) see the Library’s guide to MLA citations at http://www.library.carleton.ca/howdoI/mla_style.pdf.

IMPORTANT ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Required calculator in BUSI course examinations

If you are purchasing a calculator, we recommend any one of the following options:
Texas Instruments BA II Plus (including Pro Model), Hewlett Packard HP 12C (including Platinum model), Staples Financial Calculator, Sharp EL-738C & Hewlett Packard HP 10bII

Group work

The Sprott School of Business encourages group assignments in the school for several reasons. They provide you with opportunities to develop and enhance interpersonal, communication, leadership, follower-ship and other group skills. Group assignments are also good for learning integrative skills for putting together a complex task. Your professor may assign one or more group tasks/assignments/projects in this course. Before embarking on a specific problem as a group, it is your responsibility to ensure that the problem is meant to be a group assignment and not an individual one.

Medical certificate

Please note that in all occasions that call for a medical certificate you must use or furnish the information demanded in the standard university form.

<http://www1.carleton.ca/registrar/forms/>

Requests for Academic Accommodations

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. Please consult the PMC website for the deadline to request accommodations for the formally-scheduled exam (if applicable).

- The deadlines for contacting the Paul Menton Centre regarding accommodation for final exams for the December 2013 exam period is November 8, 2013 and for the April 2014 exam period is March 7, 2014.

For Religious Obligations:

Students requesting academic accommodation on the basis of religious obligation should make a formal, written request to their instructors for alternate dates and/or means of satisfying academic requirements. Such requests should be made during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist, but no later than two weeks before the compulsory event.

Accommodation is to be worked out directly and on an individual basis between the student and the instructor(s) involved. Instructors will make accommodations in a way that avoids academic disadvantage to the student.

Students or instructors who have questions or want to confirm accommodation eligibility of a religious event or practice may refer to the Equity Services website for a list of holy days and Carleton's Academic Accommodation policies, or may contact an Equity Services Advisor in the Equity Services Department for assistance.

For Pregnancy:

Pregnant students requiring academic accommodations are encouraged to contact an Equity Advisor in Equity Services to complete a letter of accommodation. The student must then make an appointment to discuss her needs with the instructor at least two weeks prior to the first academic event in which it is anticipated the accommodation will be required.

Academic Integrity

Violations of academic integrity are a serious academic offence. Violations of academic integrity – presenting another's ideas, arguments, words or images as your own, using unauthorized material, misrepresentation, fabricating or misrepresenting research data, unauthorized co-operation or collaboration or completing work for another student – weaken the quality of the degree and will not be tolerated. Penalties may include expulsion; suspension from all studies at Carleton; suspension from full-time studies; a refusal of permission to continue or to register in a specific degree program; academic probation; and a grade of Failure in the course, amongst others. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy which is available, along with resources for compliance at <http://www2.carleton.ca/sasc/advisingcentre/academic-integrity/>.

Assistance for Students:

Student Academic Success Centre (SASC): www.carleton.ca/sasc

Writing Tutorial Services: <http://www1.carleton.ca/sasc/writing-tutorial-service/>
