BUSI5906 – Special Topics: Strategic Analysis for Professional Accountants

Course Description
This course will provide students with an overview of the strategy process required of professional accountants. This will be a case course exploring a company’s situation analysis, and the identification and analysis of strategic and operational issues. These issues will have an accounting focus.

Please visit our course outlines page for current, detailed course syllabi.

Applicants
The School places great emphasis on the hands-on integration of business theory and practice and actively encourages working professionals. Candidates applying for a Contract Instructor position must possess a minimum of a Master’s degree or equivalent, or a CPA, CA; CPA, CMA or CPA, CGA designation, and must have at least five years of recent relevant professional experience at a senior level.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply. Individuals interested in teaching this course must complete an application and forward with CV (include all courses taught at Carleton University) to teaching@sprott.carleton.ca

*In accordance with Articles 16.3 and 16.4 in the CUPE 4600-2 Collective Agreement, the posted vacancies listed above are first offered to qualified applicants meeting the incumbency criterion. A link to the current CUPE 4600-2 Collective Agreement can be found at the Employment Agreements webpage on the Carleton University Human Resources website and the CUPE 4600-2 website.

Please note that successful incumbents of this posting may be required to support the Assurance of Learning (AOL) process for the course as part of the formal responsibilities of the position. More details and training will be provided as needed.

Closing date for this position is April 26, 2017.