Project Management

Identification, selection, initiation, and organization of projects; risk assessment; project scheduling, performance monitoring and control, and termination. Emphases on foundations, principles and supporting techniques.

Precludes additional credit for BUSI 4308

Prerequisite(s): third-year standing, BUSI 2301 and STAT 2606.

Course Description and Objectives:

The past decades have been marked by an increasing use of projects as means for organizations, whether private or public, large or small, for profit or not for profit, to achieve their strategic and operational goals. The future promises an increase in the importance and the roles of projects and project management. Some of the drivers behind this increase include the growing demand for a broad range of goods and services, the increased customer focus, the increased worldwide competition, the compression of product lifecycles, the knowledge explosion, the threat of global warming, the change in the supply chain structures, the increasing pressures to update information technologies and communications systems, the escalation in global trade, the increased needs for poverty reduction/alleviation and improving living standards of people in developing and emerging countries, etc. This course is designed to convey the principles, tools, techniques and methods employed in order to be effective in managing projects and leading the people responsible for executing the tasks that comprise the project. Topics explored include leadership dimensions, project selection, project initiation, project organization, risk assessment, project planning, project budgeting, project scheduling, resource allocation, project monitoring and control, and project evaluation and closure. Project management software, like Microsoft Project Management, will also be introduced and used. The material is organized to enable both technical and non-technical participants to appreciate the value offered by a variety of management practices and planning tools as means for administering, directing, and coordinating projects.

Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

- a) Recognize the role of projects in supporting organizational strategy.
- b) Develop an understanding of the roles a project manager must balance in order to effectively deliver project results, offer vision and direction to a team, manage the expectations of multiple stakeholders, and motivate participants.
- c) Develop in-depth knowledge in (1) managing the overall schedule to ensure that a project is completed on time and within budget; (2) identifying, tracking, managing and resolving project issues; (3) proactively communicating project information to all stakeholders; and (4) identifying, responding to and managing project risk.
- d) Evaluate project performance based on a balanced set of key performance indicators.
- e) Execute an effective project closure.

Course Requirements & Methods of Evaluation:

The course evaluation will be based on four main activities: assignments, in-class exercises (including a project simulation exercise), a project risk management exercise and exams. The weighting of each activity is as follows:

1. Assignments (3 equally marked)	30%
2. Project risk management process exercise	5%
3. Exams (2)
	Midterm examination	25%
	Final examination	40%
TOTAL		100%

The requirement for Satisfactory In-term Performance is set at a weighted average of 50% of all exams (i.e., midterm and final), not each. An Unsatisfactory In-term Performance will lead to failure with a grade of FND (regardless of the performance in other evaluations activities, such as assignments, project risk management process exercise, and in-class attendance and participation).

1. Assignments (30%)

Homework assignments to be done in groups up to 4 students will be posted on the course web site on the dates to be announced on the course news page. They are due at the start of the class on the date specified. The penalty for late homework is 20% per day (every 24 hours from the day and time the assignment is due). Assignments that are not professionally presented, i.e., cannot be read without undue effort, will lose marks. The instructor will not be responsible for a homework submitted through emails. Students should make arrangements to have a hard copy of their homework submitted in time if they are not able to make it to class on the day the homework is due. Unless otherwise stated, no collaboration between student groups is allowed for homework, although discussions are encouraged.

2. Project risk management process exercise (5%)

Students in groups up to 4 will be assigned a project scope statement and will be required to identify the potential risks associated with the project, perform a risk assessment to analyze identified risks, and develop a risk response matrix that outlines how to deal with each risk. The date of this activity will be announced in class.

3. Examination (65%)

There is one in-class exam. All exams are closed book, closed-notes. The test questions will come from the text, homework assignments, in-class hands-on exercises, lecture notes and may consist of multiple-choice, essay questions, mini-case analysis, or problems. The mid-term exam is to be scheduled on (TBA). The university will establish and announce the date for the final exam. This exam will be cumulative. No make-up will be given for missed exams, except for documented and acceptable emergencies (as defined by university standard). A deferred mid-term examination may include additional topics and must take place within two weeks after the mid-term scheduled date. Failure to meet this requirement will lead to a mark of zero. Students are advised that exam papers (mid-term or final) will not be returned back to them after being marked. They will only be available for consultation at the instructor's office.

G. CONDUCT

Professional conduct is built upon the idea of mutual respect. Such conduct entails (but is not necessarily limited to):

- Attending the class.

Each class benefits from the attendance and participation of all participants. Class attendance is mandatory. The participation grade will be affected by absences. If any circumstances prevent attendance to the class, the participant is responsible for all materials discussed, handouts distributed, assignments covered, and announcements made.

- Arriving on time.

Late arrivals are disruptive and show disrespect to those who are on time. Late arrivals are not allowed.

- Minimizing disruptions.

Participants are not allowed to leave and re-enter the class. All cell phones and electronic communication devices must be turned off during class. If an emergency situation requires keeping the cell phone turned on, it must be set in the silent mode and it is advised that the instructor be informed prior to the class starting. Participants should also avoid engaging in side conversations after class has begun.

- Focusing on the class.

Participants are not allowed to use laptops or hand-held devices for other tasks than notes taking while in class. Activities such as net surfing, and answering emails are very disruptive both to neighbors and to the entire class.

- Being prepared for class.

Participants must be ready to discuss any assigned readings and to answer any assigned questions.

- Respect.

Participants should act respectfully toward all class participants.

Group work

The Sprott School of Business encourages group assignments in the school for several reasons. They provide you with opportunities to develop and enhance interpersonal, communication, leadership, follower-ship and other group skills. Group assignments are also good for learning integrative skills for putting together a complex task. Your professor may assign one or more group tasks/assignments/projects in this course. Before embarking on a specific problem as a group, it is your responsibility to ensure that the problem is meant to be a group assignment and not an individual one.

In accordance with the Carleton University Undergraduate Calendar (p 34), the letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

A+ = 90-100	B+ = 77-79	C+ = 67-69	D+ = 57-59
A = 85-89	B = 73-76	C = 63-66	D = 53-56
A - = 80-84	B - = 70-72	C - = 60-62	D - = 50-52
F = Below 50	WDN = Withdrawn from the course
ABS = Student absent from final exam
DEF = Deferred (See above)
FND = (Failed, no Deferred) = Student could not pass the course even with 100% on final exam

Academic Regulations, Accommodations, Etc.

University rules regarding registration, withdrawal, appealing marks, and most anything else you might need to know can be found on the university's website, here: <http://calendar.carleton.ca/undergrad/regulations/academicregulationsoftheuniversity/>

Requests for Academic Accommodations

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

The Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) provides services to students with Learning Disabilities (LD), psychiatric/mental health disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism Spectrum Disorders

(ASD), chronic medical conditions, and impairments in mobility, hearing, and vision. If you have a disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact PMC at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation. If you are already registered with the PMC, contact your PMC coordinator to send me your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term, and no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with me to ensure accommodation arrangements are made.

- - The deadlines for contacting the Paul Menton Centre regarding accommodation for final exams for the December 2015 exam period is November 6, 2015 and for the April 2016 exam period is March 6, 2016.

For Religious Obligations:

Students requesting academic accommodation on the basis of religious obligation should make a formal, written request to their instructors for alternate dates and/or means of satisfying academic requirements. Such requests should be made during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist, but no later than two weeks before the compulsory event.

Accommodation is to be worked out directly and on an individual basis between the student and the instructor(s) involved. Instructors will make accommodations in a way that avoids academic disadvantage to the student.

Students or instructors who have questions or want to confirm accommodation eligibility of a religious event or practice may refer to the Equity Services website for a list of holy days and Carleton's Academic Accommodation policies, or may contact an Equity Services Advisor in the Equity Services Department for assistance.

For Pregnancy:

Pregnant students requiring academic accommodations are encouraged to contact an Equity Advisor in Equity Services to complete a letter of accommodation. The student must then make an appointment to discuss her needs with the instructor at least two weeks prior to the first academic event in which it is anticipated the accommodation will be required.

Academic Integrity

Violations of academic integrity are a serious academic offence. Violations of academic integrity – presenting another's ideas, arguments, words or images as your own, using unauthorized material, misrepresentation, fabricating or misrepresenting research data, unauthorized co-operation or collaboration or completing work for another student – weaken the quality of the degree and will not be tolerated. Penalties may include expulsion; suspension from all studies at Carleton; suspension from full-time studies; a refusal of permission to continue or to register in a specific degree program; academic probation; and a grade of Failure in the course, amongst others. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy which is available, along with resources for compliance at <http://www2.carleton.ca/sasc/advisingcentre/academic-integrity/>.
