COURSE DESCRIPTION

Welcome to BUSI 4995 – Employability Passport. This course is designed to equip students with job-readiness skills and awareness to find meaningful employment and career success. The Employability Passport complements the academic knowledge and skills gained through Sprott’s undergraduate business degree programs.

Students are granted the opportunity to participate in various activities and events outside of the classroom to develop and practice soft skills needed to be career ready. Group work

They provide you with opportunities to develop and enhance interpersonal, communication, leadership, follower-ship and other group skills. Group assignments are also good for learning integrative skills for putting together a complex task. Your professor may assign one or more group tasks/assignments/projects in this course.

Before embarking on a specific problem as a group, it is your responsibility to ensure that the problem is meant to be a group assignment and not an individual one.

Academic Integrity

Violations of academic integrity are a serious academic offence. Violations of academic integrity – presenting another’s ideas, arguments, words or images as your own, using unauthorized material, misrepresentation, fabricating or misrepresenting research data, unauthorized co-operation or collaboration or completing work for another student – weaken the quality of the degree and will not be tolerated.

AI tools are not allowed to assist in any type of preparation or creation of the assignments in this course. Using AI tools in any way is a violation of academic integrity standards. Since this course focuses on building your original ideas and critical thinking, using AI tools would compromise the learning purpose, therefore is prohibited. Contact your instructors for more information before you use any AI tools.

Process: If an alleged violation occurs, all relevant documentation will be forwarded to the Dean. If the allegation proves true, the penalties may include; a grade of Failure on the submitted work and/or course; academic probation; a refusal of permission to continue or to register in a specific degree program; suspension from full-time studies; suspension from all studies at Carleton; expulsion from Carleton, amongst others. For a first offence, at a minimum, the penalty assigned will normally be a zero on the submitted work and at least a minimum full grade reduction of the final course grade. For a second offence, at a minimum, the penalty assigned will normally lead to a suspension from studies.

Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy which is available, along with resources for compliance at: <https://carleton.ca/registrar/academic-integrity/>
