Course Description

A foundation course that aims to introduce the fundamental concepts of income tax laws and regulations as significant elements in the planning and decision-making process of taxpayers and managers. Problems, issues and planning associated with the Income Tax Act are discussed.

Learning Outcomes

Accountants cannot make intelligent business decisions without first considering the tax implications of the choices. An understanding of Canadian taxation is therefore necessary in order to make those decisions.

This course is an introduction to tax principles and practice and is designed to achieve the following objectives:

- 1) To explain the theoretical concepts behind the specific provisions of the law,
- 2) To apply the law in practical problems and case settings,
- 3) To interpret the law, taking into account the specific wording of the provisions, judicial decisions and the Canada Revenue Agency's position, and
- 4) To introduce basic tax planning concepts through case application.

This course introduces fundamental principles, personal and corporate income tax, and specialized topics (e.g., GST/HST).

Notes

- 1) I'm hoping that you take notes as you watch the videos where I present the slide deck material and as I walk through examples and problems. Good notetaking is an important part of learning. Writing things down in your own words helps with retention of the material. Having notes you made while watching the video the first time creates more efficient studying and assignment preparation as you don't have to go back to the video and rewatch something.

Videos allow for easier notetaking than a live lecture. You can pause the video to write your notes if I'm getting ahead of you. You can rewind the video if you missed something. You can pause if you need to go to the bathroom.

There is no specified format for these submissions; use whatever format for notetaking works best for you (e.g., taking notes directly in the powerpoint software in the 'notes' section below the slide, take handwritten notes on lined paper and scan them, take notes in word, print the slides and take handwritten notes on them, do calculations in excel, whatever). It's not the format that matters, but what works for you.

You should be taking sufficient notes anyway, but this participation point activity is a small incentive for you to take good notes, to not fall behind in the material, etc. Plus, it allows for me or the TA to provide you feedback on how you might improve the quality of your notes to help you succeed.

If your notes are of appropriate quality, you will receive the full 1/1. If they showcase a little less effort than desirable, you will receive half marks. If they are of poor quality, you will receive 0.

- 2) This course has been registered in the Incentive Program offered through the Centre for Student Academic Support (CSAS). CSAS Learning and Writing Support Workshops are designed to help students cultivate and refine their academic skills for a university environment. To earn up to 2% marks towards participation, students are expected to complete up to 2 workshops (1% each) throughout the term. The workshops must be completed by August 16 to receive credit. You may choose any workshop offered that is of interest. Note: the webinars are not eligible for this program, only the workshops.

For students' attendance to be captured, they must complete all workshop components and achieve 100% on the final assessment. Once students achieve 100% on the final assessment, they will receive a Record of Completion award from Brightspace. Students will need to download the Record of Completion PDF for each applicable workshop and submit them to the assignment submission box within the course. For more information about workshop attendance and submitting the Records of Completion, please visit the Incentive Program Policies on our website.

To view the complete list of the workshops and their descriptions, please visit the Learning and Writing Support Workshops page on the CSAS website. Please note that CSAS webinars and in-person workshops are not eligible for the Incentive Program.

To access the online workshops, please self-enroll on the CSAS Online Resources page.

For further information on the Incentive Program, please visit the Incentive Program FAQs page. For additional questions, please contact the Centre for Student Academic Support at csas@carleton.ca.

- 3) As at the time of developing this course outline, the total available participation point total 18. Additional activities may be added throughout the term as opportunities arise. The maximum achievable mark will remain 10/10.

Assignments

The assignments will be due on Brightspace by 6pm on the following dates:

Assignment #	Chapter Coverage	Due Date	% of Grade
1	1, 2	May 29	5%
2	3, 5	Jun 12	10%
3	6, 7	Jul 4	10%
4	8, 9 (NALT)	Jul 24	10%
5	9, 10, 4/11	Aug 7	10%
6	12, 13	Aug 16	5%

Assignments can be done individually or in pairs (2).

Late work policy: The assignment deadlines are at least one week after the completion of related course material (sometimes more) and as such, should be sufficient. Yet, sometimes, despite our best efforts, and for good reasons, we can't meet our deadlines. You have two days of grace that you can apply to missed assignment deadlines. For example, a single assignment may be two days late or two assignments may each be one day late with no penalty. No reason required. No questions asked. That said, I need an email by the deadline indicating you will be late, but plan on submitting. It's important to me to post the solution as soon as possible for the other students, as this is a best practice for learning. I don't want all students to wait for submissions that aren't coming. Once the two days have been used, no further lateness will be accepted and any late submissions at that stage will receive 0.

Final exam

The final examination will be held in the regular examination period (Aug 19-25). The duration of the exam will be 3 hours. The final examination will cover the whole course.

You need to obtain a minimum of 45% on the final exam to pass this course.

The default assumption is that students will write the final exam in-person on campus. If a student is not be able to come to campus because they are studying remotely, they can apply to write at a distance (<https://carleton.ca/ses/distance-exams/>). We will be leveraging automated e-Proctoring software, to ensure integrity of the test/exam process. However, we recognize that there may be exceptional circumstances that prohibit the use of technology (i.e., technical infrastructure issues), and for these cases, students may apply to have an in-person, proctored, exam at an eligible post-secondary institution. There is a cost associated for this service: $92 for those writing within Canada, and $165 for those writing outside of Canada. If technology is leveraged, the international fee will be waived in favor for the within Canada rate. For students who require the use of a proctor at a post-secondary institution, the student will also be responsible for this additional fee. Students need to apply for this service by May 10th.

e-Proctoring: You can find more information at <https://carleton.ca/ses/e-proctoring/>.

The minimum computing requirements for e-proctoring service are as follows:

- Hardware: Desktop, or Laptop
- OS: Windows 10, Mac OS 10.14, Linux Ubuntu 18.04
- Internet Browser: Google Chrome, Mozilla Firefox, Apple Safari, or Microsoft Edge
- Internet Connection (High-Speed Internet Connection Recommended)
- Webcam (HD resolution recommended)

Note: Tablets, Chromebooks and Smartphones are not supported at this time. Windows-based tablets are not supported at this time.

The final exam will test both the technical and conceptual aspects of the course. Only non-programmable calculators (without alpha storage capabilities) will be permitted. Translation dictionaries are allowed as long as they are in print format and do not contain any handwritten notes. Electronic translation dictionaries are not allowed. All assigned readings, in-class handouts and material from lectures are examinable. A Tax Appendix, with various information, will be provided by the instructor as part of the final exam (you will see this appendix, and what it contains, prior to the examination).

Marking

The assignments and final exam will be marked by the teaching assistants and the instructors together and follow a rigorous quality control process that reasonably assures that the grade awarded is fair. However, no system is 100% error-free, so it is possible that you may wish to call into question a grade that has been awarded. In this circumstance, please write a brief email describing the difficulty with the awarded grade to the instructor no later than seven calendar days following the date the assignments/tests were handed back. Please be sure to include your student number in the email to enable us to properly identify it.

Reduction of Bias

I make an effort to reduce unintentional bias in grading by, for example and when possible, grading anonymously, using clear and specific rubrics, and grading tests one question at a time (grading all of question 1 before grading any of question 2), etc.

How to Do Well: Stay on Top of Your Work

Work Expected Each Week	Estimated Time (Hours)
Watch lecture material, take good notes, solve problems on own when instructed and then watch video takeup, etc. Some students have told me that although the lectures are < 3 hours, the effort to take good notes adds time initially (hence the 3-4 hours here), but ends up saving them time later when studying.	3-4
Work with material on your own (e.g., problems with video solutions, problems with pdf solutions, read textbook chapter, exercises/review questions in textbook, etc.)	3
Work on assignment	3
Hours per week (on average)	9-10

Group assignments are also good for learning integrative skills for putting together a complex task. Your professor may assign one or more group tasks/assignments/projects in this course. Before embarking on a specific problem as a group, it is your responsibility to ensure that the problem is meant to be a group assignment and not an individual one.

Academic Integrity

Violations of academic integrity are a serious academic offence. Violations of academic integrity – presenting another’s ideas, arguments, words or images as your own, using unauthorized material, misrepresentation, fabricating or misrepresenting research data, unauthorized co-operation or collaboration or completing work for another student – weaken the quality of the degree and will not be tolerated.

Process: If an alleged violation occurs, all relevant documentation will be forwarded to the Dean. If the allegation proves true, the penalties may include; a grade of Failure on the submitted work and/or course; academic probation; a refusal of permission to continue or to register in a specific degree program; suspension from full-time studies; suspension from all studies at Carleton; expulsion from Carleton, amongst others.

For a first offence, at a minimum, the penalty assigned will normally be a zero on the submitted work and at least a minimum full grade reduction of the final course grade. For a second offence, at a minimum, the penalty assigned will normally lead to a suspension from studies.

Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy which is available, along with resources for compliance at: <https://carleton.ca/registrar/academic-integrity/>.
