I. Course Structure and Navigation:

This course is structured slightly differently than a traditional, lecture-style course. There are thirteen (13) weeks of instruction in this course, and a total of 10 lectures that students will attend. The lectures will contain complementary videos questions from the complementary readings and group work.. Throughout the course, the ppt presentation of the lectures, the videos will be unlocked to allow the students to successfully understand each lecture and group work. In addition to these 10 lectures, students will participate in a variety of different activities and assignments during the 13 weeks of the course.

There are four (4) group cases during weeks 2,4,6, and 8. two (2) guest speaker forums in this course, which will allow you to engage in conversation with Human Resource Professionals from different companies or institutions. There is one (1) reflection, which will offer you a chance to question and critique the material that you are learning, a Term Project with a real company to help you put in practice what you are learning with two entries in cuPortfolio to help you with your time frames, a midterm (multiple choice and open ended questions) and a Final exam (with multiple choice questions and short answer questions) to be done at the end of the term.

The students of this course will complete 2 entries in cuPortfolio and a final group written term project about how a real company is doing one of the 10 different functions of HR that we have studied during the term. This major project is broken down into two parts: Part 1, you will be doing the literature review of the company in regard to the function of HR chosen, entry 1 literature review of the topic and the company, entry 2 literature review of the organizational strategy and the HR strategy of the company in relation to the topic chosen. You will have an online meeting with the prof to talk about your suggestions or improvements given to the company to improve the HR function chosen. Your fully-written paper (15 pages), in which you analyze how the function of HR chosen is done in within the company (guidelines and templates will be given) and some ideas for improvement and implementation.

Required Readings and Videos:

There is an optional textbook for this course that will complement the information given in the slides and the video presentations. All required and supplementary readings will be available online through Carleton’s Ares reserve system.

All required videos will be made available within each module. All the reading material used for the course, optional text book and extra readings from Ares as well as the extra video material are there to complement the content from each of the Modules.

Course Essentials Calendar:

Note: for a list of exact due dates, see the Activity and Assignment Due Dates document, located in Course Essentials this calendar could be subject to any changes during the term. OT Optional Text Book

Group Cases or Exercise (4%X4)	16%
Midterm Exam	15%
Final Project Presentation	12%
Final Project Written Report	25%
Final Exam	30%

II. POLICES AND PROCEDURES

- Communication: There are several ways for you to contact the Instructor. If you would like to write to me, please send an email and I will do my best to respond to your message within 24 hours. If you would like to speak with me, please schedule an individual meeting in Zoom. Here is are some official backgrounds for zoom meetings in case you need them:

Course • BUSI 3102 E • Winter 2023

<https://sprott.carleton.ca/students/sprott-virtual-swag/>

- Reviewing Submitted Work: If you have a concern with one of your grades for an assignment or activity, please write to your Instructor.
- Late Policy: Activities or assignments that are submitted after the due date will receive a penalty of 5% per day, including weekends. Ex: an assignment that is due on Friday but submitted on Monday will receive a penalty of 10%. Students who have a valid reason for submitting work late must contact the TAs or the Instructor immediately.
- Fair and Respectful Participation: Students are encouraged to connect with their peers as much as possible. This communication must be conducted in a fair and respectful manner. There is a strict, zero tolerance policy for any disrespectful or intolerant behaviour in this course. We are all here to learn from each other!
- Satisfactory In-term Performance
The requirement for Satisfactory In-term Performance is set at 50% of all, not each, pre-final term work:
  - a) Group Cases
  - b) Midterm Exam
  - c) Final Exam
  - d) Final Project presentation and written report
- Citations:
Equally important you are being graded in part on the degree, depth and quality of your empirical research, demonstrated by citations to appropriate sources. A minimal number of citations points to inadequate research. Ensure that you cite every graph, table, report, quote, original idea or piece of information taken from somewhere else, to avoid plagiarism. When in doubt, cite, paying particular attention to correctly identify phrases as quotations with precise references to their source. To compile the list of works cited (bibliography or reference list) see the Library's guide APA of Chicago Style citations.

Academic Regulations

University rules regarding registration, withdrawal, appealing marks, and most anything else you might need to know can be found on the university's website, here:

<http://calendar.carleton.ca/undergrad/regulations/academicregulationsoftheuniversity/>

Requests for Academic Accommodation

You may need special arrangements to meet your academic obligations during the term. For an accommodation request, the processes are as follows:

a) Pregnancy Accommodation

Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

b) Religious obligation

Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. For more details, visit the Equity Services website: carleton.ca/equity/wp-content/uploads/Student-Guide-to-Academic-Accommodation.pdf

c) Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

If you have a documented disability requiring academic accommodations in this course, please contact the Paul Menton Centre for Students with Disabilities (PMC) at 613-520-6608 or pmc@carleton.ca for a formal evaluation or contact your PMC coordinator to send your instructor your Letter of Accommodation at the beginning of the term. You must also contact the PMC no later than two weeks before the first in-class scheduled test or exam requiring accommodation (if applicable). After requesting accommodation from PMC, meet with your instructor as soon as possible to ensure accommodation arrangements are made. carleton.ca/pmc

d) Accommodation for Student Activities

Carleton University recognizes the substantial benefits, both to the individual student and for the university, that result from a student participating in activities beyond the classroom experience. Reasonable accommodation must be provided to students who compete or perform at the national or international level. Please contact your instructor with any requests for academic accommodation during the first two weeks of class, or as soon as possible after the need for accommodation is known to exist. <https://carleton.ca/senate/wp-content/uploads/Accommodation-for-Student-Activities-1.pdf>

For more information on academic accommodation, please contact the departmental administrator or visit: students.carleton.ca/course-outline

Survivors of Sexual Violence

As a community, Carleton University is committed to maintaining a positive learning, working and living environment where sexual violence will not be tolerated, and its survivors are supported through academic accommodations as per Carleton's Sexual Violence Policy. For more information about the services available at the university and to obtain information about sexual violence and/or support, visit: carleton.ca/sexual-violence-support

Academic Integrity

Violations of academic integrity are a serious academic offence. Violations of academic integrity – presenting another's ideas, arguments, words or images as your own, using unauthorized material, misrepresentation, fabricating or misrepresenting research data, unauthorized co-operation or collaboration or completing work for another student – weaken the quality of the degree and will not be tolerated.

Process: If an alleged violation occurs, all relevant documentation will be forwarded to the Dean. If the allegation proves true, the penalties may include; a grade of Failure on the submitted work and/or course; academic probation; a refusal of permission to continue or to register in a specific degree program; suspension from full-time studies; suspension from all studies at Carleton; expulsion from Carleton, amongst others. For a first offence, at a minimum, the penalty assigned will normally be a zero on the submitted work and at least a minimum full grade reduction of the final course grade. For a second offence, at a minimum, the penalty assigned will normally lead to a suspension from studies.

Students are expected to familiarize themselves with and follow the Carleton University Student Academic Integrity Policy which is available, along with resources for compliance at: <https://carleton.ca/registrar/academic-integrity/>.

Covid-19 Information:

- It is important to remember that COVID is still present in Ottawa. The situation can change at any time and the risks of new variants and outbreaks are very real. There are a number of actions you can take to lower your risk and the risk you pose to those around you including being vaccinated, wearing a mask, staying home when you're sick, washing your hands and maintaining proper respiratory and cough etiquette.
- Feeling sick? Remaining vigilant and not attending work or school when sick or with symptoms is critically important. If you feel ill or exhibit COVID-19 symptoms do not come to class or campus. If you feel ill or exhibit symptoms while on campus or in class, please leave campus immediately. In all situations, you must follow Carleton's symptom reporting protocols.
- Masks: Carleton has paused the COVID-19 Mask Policy, but continues to strongly recommend masking when indoors, particularly if physical distancing cannot be maintained. It may become necessary to quickly reinstate the mask requirement if pandemic circumstances were to change.
- Vaccines: Further, while proof of vaccination is no longer required as of May 1 to attend campus or in-person activity, it may become necessary for the University to bring back proof of vaccination requirements on short notice if the situation and public health advice changes. Students are strongly encouraged to get a full course of vaccination, including booster doses as soon as they are eligible, and submit their booster dose information in cuScreen as soon as possible. Please note that Carleton cannot guarantee that it will be able to offer virtual or hybrid learning options for those who are unable to attend the campus.
- All members of the Carleton community are required to follow requirements and guidelines regarding health and safety which may change from time to time. For the most recent information about Carleton's COVID-19 response and health and safety requirements please see the University's COVID-19 website and review the Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs). Should you have additional questions after reviewing, please contact covidinfo@carleton.ca.
