Course calendar entry from 2019/2020 graduate calendar:

The analytical foundations and tools necessary for successful decision making by investment managers and analysts and by individual investors. Includes a significant hands-on component.

Course Prerequisites:

FINA5502

Course Description:

The objective of this course is to provide students with the tools necessary to become successful investors or portfolio/money managers. A rigorous quantitative and qualitative analysis of the money and capital markets is offered, with the primary focus on the North American markets. There is a detailed examination of how and where securities are traded and how they are valued, providing insight in to how investors appropriately allocate funds across different investment vehicles. This course focuses primarily on an examination of the equity markets in North America. A detailed examination of the trading process and the function of securities markets are presented. This is followed by exposure to the concepts of risk and return, specifically analysing the role played in security valuation and in portfolio diversification

Class Format

The majority of the classes will be comprised of lectures and the completion of sample problems.

They are intended for personal use and may not be reproduced or redistributed without prior written consent of the author(s).

Policy on Mobile Devices

The use of mobile devices IS NOT PERMITTED in this class. It is disruptive to the instructor and class members. If you carry such a device to class, please make sure it is turned off. If an emergency situation requires you to keep it turned on, please discuss this with your instructor prior to class.

Group work

The Sprott School of Business encourages group assignments in the school for several reasons. They provide you with opportunities to develop and enhance interpersonal, communication, leadership, follower-ship and other group skills. Group assignments are also good for learning integrative skills for putting together a complex task. Your professor may assign one or more group tasks/assignments/projects in this course. Before embarking on a specific problem as a group, it is your responsibility to ensure that the problem is meant to be a group assignment and not an individual one.
