Calendar Description

Valuation techniques needed for enterprise valuation. The identification of value drivers, insights into the valuation of companies in different settings. Step-by-step procedures for valuing businesses. Includes a team case analysis and presentation.

Course Overview

This course focuses on the theory and practice of corporate valuation. Valuation is used in many settings. It is used for the purpose of investments, mergers and acquisitions and also when companies issue new shares or divest operations. In this course, we will explore the main valuation methods used by professional investors. The course focuses, among others things, on absolute valuation methods, relative valuation methods, developing an appropriate cost of capital, building financial (valuation) models. This practical, hands-on course is taught using formal lectures combined with interactive case studies and exercises to reinforce the concepts covered in class. As part of class preparation and in-class discussion, you will be asked to solve both quantitative and qualitative problems involving valuation of synergies and control premium and to determine the value of both publicly-traded and privately-owned companies. In addition, students will create their own excel-based valuation models which will be used to value a real life company. Through case studies and exercises involving problem solving in different areas of valuation, you will gain practical, hands-on experience of the various valuation techniques and financial modelling.

To stimulate critical thinking and to test your understanding of the material covered in the course you are required to apply the concepts discussed in class to determine the value of a real life company listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange or private firm of your choice. You and your group should select your company during or after the first class and email it to the instructor. The goal of this exercise is to provide you an opportunity to apply the concepts that will be discussed in class to a real company and to evaluate whether the firm is underpriced or overpriced in the marketplace.

Course Objectives

The objective of the course is to provide students with knowledge of

- the various valuation methods;
- what factors drive the value of firms

- financial modelling tools to evaluate mergers and acquisitions transactions.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Cellular Phones:

The use of cellular phones IS NOT PERMITTED in this class. It is disruptive to the instructor and class members. If you carry a phone to class, please make sure it is turned off. If an emergency situation requires you to keep your cell phone turned on you may wish to keep the silent mode on. Please discuss this with the instructor prior to the class starting.

Drop Course Policy

Students can drop a course up until the END of the second week of classes. Students who drop a class in the third week will receive a WDN but will automatically have the grade changed to ABS. A grade of ABS is considered a failing grade. A required course will have to be taken again. NOTE: The final exam will be comprehensive, covering material from the entire course. If you obtain less than 50% on the final exam, you will receive an “F” grade regardless of your total marks in the course.

NOTE: Students who do not demonstrate a minimum level of performance during the term will not be allowed to defer the final exam. The requirement for satisfactory in-term performance is an overall mark of 50% or better on the assignments and quiz. Students with unsatisfactory in-term performance who miss the final exam will be awarded FND for the course.

QUIZ (15%)

To encourage students to keep up with the course material and to measure students’ understanding of the material, I will administer one in-class quiz. The quiz will be 20-25 minutes in duration and it will be multiple choice questions.

At the end of the lecture preceding the week of the quiz, you will be informed of the topics that will be tested in the quiz.

GROUP WORK:

As noted below this course involves group case analysis. During the first class groups of 4 to 5 students should be formed. Students should choose their own groups. After the first class, each group should email the professor the names and student numbers of the group members.

Case Analysis:

Your group is required to analyze the case: Tom.Com: The Valuation of an Asian Internet Company (to be obtained from Ivey Business School, Western University). The goal of this exercise is to provide you an opportunity to apply the concepts that will be discussed in class to an actual M&A transaction. You are required to choose (no later than the third week of classes) an actual merger/acquisition from the list below and provide a written analysis that shows that you have understood and applied the material from this course. Each group will be responsible for preparing a detailed analysis of the assigned case. The assignment will be professionally written with a maximum length of 3,000 words (excluding appendices). The first page of your report will consist of an executive summary of the group's analysis and recommendations. The subsequent pages will document the analysis and reasoning. Numerical analyses that are referred to in the write-up should be provided as appendices.

Late Assignments:

To ensure fairness for all students, penalties will be applied to late assignments: Failure to submit an assignment on time will result in an initial penalty of five (5) percentage points, followed by an additional (2) percentage points per day thereafter. For example, an assignment that would normally merit a grade of 80% would receive a grade of 75% if submitted after the deadline on the due date, 73% if submitted the following day, and so on. Requests for extension will be considered ONLY in cases of illness, family emergency, or other exceptional circumstances supported by medical note.

FINAL EXAM (50%):

The final examination will test your understanding of the concepts covered in both the lectures and case components of the course. It will be held during the final examination period. The exam format will be explained during the last week of class.

The date of the final exam will be announced through the University's normal procedures. It is important that you are available for the final exam. Allowance will not be made for conflicting travel plans.

Deferred Final Examination:

Students unable to write a final examination because of illness or other circumstances beyond their control must contact the instructor and the MBA office in writing to request a deferred exam. Permission may be granted when the absence is supported by a medical certificate and or appropriate document/s to support the reason for the deferral. Deferred exams are not granted for students who have made travel arrangements that conflict with examination schedule.

Group Work:

The Sprott School of Business encourages group assignments. They provide you with opportunities to develop and enhance interpersonal, communication, leadership, followership and other group skills. Group assignments are also an effective way to learn integrative skills for putting together a complex task. Your professor may assign one or more group tasks, assignments, or projects in this course. Before embarking on a specific problem as a group, it is your responsibility to ensure that the problem is meant to be a group assignment and not an individual one.

Peer Evaluation for Group Work

To deter social loafing and ensure fairness in grading, you will be asked to assess the contribution of your fellow group members. This information will be used when assigning the grade for the final project. The procedure is as follows: Each student should take 100 points and allocate those points to the various members of the group (including him or herself) to reflect the contributions made by each member. For instance, if there are four members in a group and everyone contributed equally, each individual would receive 25 points. Conversely, if an individual contributed relatively little, the remaining group members might allocate few points to that member. To ensure that these peer evaluation scores are reasonable and free from personal bias, you will be asked to provide a detailed written explanation for your point allocation.

Letter Grades:

In accordance with the Carleton University Undergraduate Calendar (p 34), the letter grades assigned in this course will have the following percentage equivalents:

A+ = 90-100	B+ = 77-79	C+ = 67-69	D+ = 57-59	F = Below 50
A = 85-89	B = 73-76	C = 63-66	D = 53-56
